TARIFF CHANGES CURTAIL REVENUE

Proposed Dutiable Articles Being Transferred to the Free List

WORK ON PROVISIONS OF BILL

Many Recommendations Being Made Advocating Changes in Schedules of Underwood Tariff Bill—Dutiable Articles

Washington, June 11.—Changes in the Underwood tariff bill by the Senate Finance sub-committees transferring proposed dutiable articles to the free list, will aggregate an estimated annual loss in revenue to the government of nearly a million and a half dollars. This curtailment of revenue under the House bill is based only on tarticles known to have been transferred to the free list thus far upon sub-committee recommendations, and does not take into account decreases in duties which will be proposed on many articles. Added to the $25,000,000 estimated loss in revenue under the House bill free list, this would aggregate $26,500,000.

The Senate List

Included in the Senate list are the revenues that would be derived from hemp which the Underwood bill makes dutiable, but which the Senate subcommittee today decided should be transferred to the free list. Hemp will be sent to the caucus on free list on the ground that it belongs there if other products of the farms such as cattle and wheat are to be free-listed, as it would result in cheaper twine to the farmers, and compensate them somewhat by reducing their harvest expenditures. Hemp, both plain and hackled, the sub-committee proposes to remove from the dutiable list, the former from $11.20 a ton, and the latter from one cent a pound in the Underwood bill.

Some of this loss in revenue may be made up by countervailing duties on certain agricultural products but this amount, it is estimated will not be large.

Free-listed Articles

Among the articles which the Senate sub-committees have added to the free list and the estimated revenues cut off are: Pig iron, $120,000; ferro manganese and spiegeleisen, $126,500; hemp, $78,400; livestock, $583,000; wheat, $200,000; photographic films, $210,000; cedar wood, $10,000; coal tar dyes, $90,000, a total of $1,417,900.

Today the majority members of the Finance committee opposed publication at this time of detailed changes in the Underwood bill approved by them on sub-committee recommendations.

The Cotton Schedule

The committee today had under consideration the changes in the cotton schedule proposed by Senator Johnson's sub-committee. Most of them were approved, but one or two matters were referred back to the subcommittee for further consideration. In this schedule the net result of the altered rates will increase the average cotton rates in the Underwood bill about five per cent the principal changes affecting cotton yarns. This is probably the only schedule in which Senate action will result in an increase.

The majority members of the committee decided their action should be guarded as much as possible until the caucus can have a chance to act, because the caucus might in some matters reverse or otherwise alter their decisions.

The metal and earthenware schedules were considered for a time today but discussion on them was continued until tomorrow.

Income Tax Feature

Senator Williams' sub-committee is still working on the income tax and administrative provisions of the bill but expects to report tomorrow. It has been decided to eliminate the anti-dumping clause and the 5 per cent tariff discount on imports on American ships, and some modification will be reported of the provisions directing foreign manufacturers to submit their books when valuations are in dispute. The income tax also will be modified to give mutual life insurance an opportunity to claim exemption by proving they are not conducted for profit.

Print-paper Provision

With regard to print-paper, Senator Johnson's sub-committee has under consideration a plan to leave paper valued at not more than two and a half cents a pound on the free list, but, in lieu of a proposed countervailing duty, to insert a clause which would provide for a duty of $2 a ton should restrictions on exports of wood and pulp in the Canadian tariff not be removed within a stated period, probably a year.

The provision would not specify Canada, but that would be the only country affected.

Pig iron and spiegeleizen, free-listed by the Senate committee, were made dutiable at 8 per cent, in the House bill, the former reduced from the ad valorem equivalent in the present law of 16.35 per cent and the latter from 12.71 per cent.

Ferro manganese was increased in the Underwood bill from 6.74 per cent, under the Payne law to 15 per cent in the House bill. The Ways and Means committee increased the tax for revenue purposes only. In voting to free-list these products the Senate committee contended that both pig iron and ferro manganese were extensive products of th United States Steel Corporation which independent steel manufacturers had to buy.

STATE BONDS NOT SOLD

North Carolina Sec... Fail to Draw Bidders—Treas... ly Explains by Showi... tiated Market.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—The State of North Carolina today failed to find a market for its issue of $1,142,500 4 per cent, 40-year bonds for floating debt and permanent improvements at State institutions. Bids to the amount of only $154,000 being received. There was not a bid from outside the State.

Only State Treasurer Lacy and a couple of local bankers were present when the bids were opened at noon. The smallest was for $1,000 and largest $25,000, the Battery Park Bank, of Asheville, putting in two bids of $25,000 each, one of these at par and the other at a premium of $62.50. The Murchison National Bank, of Wilmington, bid for $6,000 at par. Indeed, practically all were at par and none much above. The others follow:

E. G. Currin, Oxford, $5,000; Geo. Montcastle, Lexington, $21,000; L. H. Cutler, Newbern, $1,500; Dr. C. R. Wharton, Ruffin $1,003; Mrs. Sadie Wharton Williamson, Ruffin $1,003; E. D. Winstead, Winton, $6,030; J. W. Burton, Jacksonville $4,000; Frank Thompson, Jacksonville $5,000; Bank of Lenoir, $10,000; W. J. Armfield, High Point $5,015; North Carolina Home Insurance Co., Raleigh $10,000; W. M. Myrick, Haw River $2,020; C. A. Raysor, Asheville $5,000; Lovit Hines, Kinston $4,000; Cash $7,540; Jos. G. Brown, Raleigh $5,001; Ernest Haywood, Raleigh, $5,001.

State Treasurer Lacey said concerning the failure of the State to sell the bonds, that there is no reason to be surprised as the Legislature anticipated the condition of the market by adding Section Six, which authorizes the treasurer to borrow the money if he is not able to sell the bonds. He quotes the New York, the London, the Berlin and other financial journals as to the satiated conditions of the world money market and added that in this country, in practically every State, as in North Carolina, large issues of bonds of all descriptions are being offered to the investing public, so that it is hardly to be wondered at that some of these issues bearing low rates of interest must temporarily fail to find purchasers. There is no question about the credit of the State and North Carolina and under ordinary conditions an issue of a million dollars would have been readily absorbed in the State itself.

DANIELS HEARS GRIEVANCES

Navy Yard Employes Find Sympathetic Listener—Wage Schedules

Washington, June 11.—Two hundred representatives of Atlantic coast navy yards employes found a sympathetic hearer in Secretary Daniels today when they appeared at the Navy Department to submit various grievances. The men complained about so-called "scientific" management systems and the lack of uniformity in wage scales, and insisted that they should have representation in the wage boards of the various yards.

The secretary promised to give careful consideration to all of the propositions presented.

"Navy yard employes ought to have the information upon which the wage board bases the compensation which they receive," he said at the close of the conference. "I am not, however, prepared to say that the employes should be represented on the wage board."

His callers had declared that a board made up entirely of naval officers could not consider adequately the claims of the civilian employes.

When demands were pressed for uniform compensation, Mr. Daniels called attention to the fact that Congress had provided that navy yard employes shall receive the same compensation as paid by private establishments to the various crafts in the same vicinity. The Norfolk yard employes were dissatisfied because they received less money than the men at the Philadelphia yard for the same grade of work.

There were present representatives from the yards at Boston, New York, Philadelphia, Newport, Annapolis, Norfolk, Charleston, S. C., and Washington.

PREPARING BILL ON RAILROAD RATES

Will Seek to Extend Jurisdiction of Commerce Commission

BITTER OPPOSITION CERTAIN

Basic Principle of the Measure the Right of Congress to Have Absolute Control of Inter-State Commerce—Thought Advisable.

Washington, June 11.—Extension of the jurisdiction of the Inter-State Commerce Commission over intra-State rates on inter-State railroads in accordance with suggestions in the Minnesota rate decision, will be proposed in a bill now being prepared by Representative Willis, of Ohio, a Republican member of the House Inter-State and Foreign Commerce Committee.

The basic principle of this measure will be the right of Congress to control absolutely the instrumentalities of inter-State commerce, even to the extent of regulating the rates in each State. Such is Representative Willis' interpretation of what the Supreme Court held in the Minnesota rate cases to be within the power of Congress.

The bill may be patterned after the Federal Safety Appliance acts. Since the decision in the Minnesota rate cases, these laws have been pointed to as instances where Congress has seen fit to exercise its jurisdiction in State matters, because these matters concern the instrumentalities of inter-State commerce. In a safety appliance decision about a year ago the Supreme Court held the laws applied to cars on an inter-State road, although the cars were carrying commerce originating and ending within the State of Alabama.

Bitter opposition to the Willis bill is regarded as certain to arise both in the House and Senate.

Senator Newlands, chairman of the Senate inter-State Commerce Committee, takes the position that the States are handling the rate question so satisfactorily that the Federal government would not be justified by interfering by exercising its powers as outlined by the Supreme Court.

QUAKER OATS CO. ATTACKED

Federal Court After Oat Meal Trust Under Sherman Law—Wants Corporation Declared Illegal—Competition.

Chicago, June 11.—The Quaker Oats Company—the so-called oatmeal trust—controlling 90 per cent. of the oatmeal products and by-products of the country, was attacked by the Federal Court in a civil suit filed here today charging a monopoly in "derogation of the common rights of the people of the United States and in violation of the Sherman law."

While the government does not ask for dissolution of the Quaker Oats Company, it petitions the court to decree the corporation "in and of itself" to be illegal, and to enjoin the company from engaging in inter-State commerce in oatmeal products until competitive conditions existing prior to the combination are restored. The petition asks for a temporary injunction to bring about competition.

The name of Myron T. Herrick, American ambassador to France, is mentioned in the government's bill, not as a defendant, but as one of the directors and organizers in 1891 of the American Cereal Co., which is declared to have been formed with the design of restraining and monopolizing the oatmeal trade.

The Quaker Oats Co., the Great Western Cereal Co., and a number of individuals are named as defendants.

This injunction, if granted, would remain perpetually in force and be suspended temporarily only when the defendants had shown they were complying with the decree. It could be reinstated at any time the government showed the defendants were violating the anti-trust act.

Complaint is made particularly in the bill against a contract described as a conspiracy in restrain of trade between the Quaker Oats company and the Great Western Cereal Company, by which the former acquired the business of the latter which is said to have been insolvent from the date of the contract, June 22nd, 1911. The cancellation of this agreement is asked.

At various times since 1888, the defendants are alleged to have combined and conspired to suppress competition. In 1889, it is declared, ten cereal manufacturers, controlling more than 50 per cent. of the business, formed a pool.

In 1891 most of these concerns were absorbed, it is asserted, by the American Cereal Co., organized for the purpose of carrying on the pool. In 1901 this corporation was acquired and later succeeded by the present Quaker Oats Co. The latter's contract in 1911 with the Great Western Cereal Co., which carried with it all rights to the trade name "Mothers" as applied to certain cereals is described as the final, which increased the business of the Quaker Oats Co., from 60 to 90 per cent.

The bill was filed by United States Attorney Wilkerson at the direction of Attorney General McReynolds.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE BILL

Passed by House in Illinois—Reconsideration Pending

Springfield, Ill., June 13.—The Woman's Suffrage bill, granting women to vote for all statutory offices in the State of Illinois, was passed by the House today by a vote of 82 ayes to 58 nays.

Pending notice of a motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill was passed, it will remain in possession of the House. Unless the House reconsider its vote, which is considered not likely, the uffrage bill will be up to Governor Dunne by the latter part of the present week for executive approval or veto.

In order to give notice of a motion to reconsider, Representatie McCarty, Democrat, of Chicago, changed his vote from "ay" to "aye." He gave the formal notice that on the next legislative day he would move on reconsideration.

The limited suffrage bill, which is now only a few steps from becoming a law, was introduced in the Senate on February 11th, by Senator P. S. Magill, Republican, and was passed by the upper branch of the General Assembly early in May.

When the roll call had been completed today the measure was one vote short of a constitutional majority. Speaker McKinley, whose name is last on the roll, had cast the seventy-sixth vote. He ordered a call of the absentees. Representative Barker's name was th first absentee called. A shout went up when he voted for the bill. Four others voted for the bill after it had received the seventy-sevn otes necessary to pass it.

INQUIRY CENTERS ON SUGAR LOBBY

Sugar Producers are Resentful of President Wilson's Attitude

ADMINISTRATION ATTACKED

Louisiana and Hawaiian Witnesses Declare They Have Not Received Justice— Admit "Lobby" but Object to Term

Washington, June 11.—Investigation of the "sugar lobby" by the Senate Lobby committee today was to a marked extent a controversy over whether President Wilson had given the sugar producers reason to believe they would have "nothing to fear" from free sugar under his administration.

Out of the day's testimony in which Louisiana and Hawaiian witnesses repeatedly declared they had not received fair treatment from the President, had been mislead by others as to his purpose the committee succeeded in drawing what are believed to be some of the most important facts thus far developed. Some of the sugar men frankly admitted they constituted a "lobby" although they objected to the charge that any of their actions had been "insidious" or in any way illegitimate or underhanded. They admitted that comprehensive campaigns had been organized and carried out, to create "back fires" on Senators and Representatives from their own States, in the hope of winning their support to the anti-free sugar side.

"The prosperity of Louisiana was at stake," said Jules Godchaux, a sugar planter. "We tried to get the people we did business with to write Senators and Representatives telling them that fre sugar would dstroy the business of the State. We asked them to wire and write Washington and to ask the merchants they did business with in the United States to do the same. We tried to establish an endless chain of letters and telegrams to draw attention of Congress to our arguments."

John F. Hamburg, of New York, manager of a large Hawaiian sugar firm, admitted his firm had urged all of their 1,500 or more customers to write to Senators and Representatives pointing out the destruction to business that would follow free sugar.

"We had to do that to overcome some of the effects of the mis-statements that had been made in the free sugar campaign," he said.

Plainly resentful of the President's recent statements as to the operation of an "insidious lobby" in Washington, the Louisian and Hawaiian sugar men enlivened the hearings with frecuent attempts to tell of the pledges they believed they had receivd that sugar would not b made entirely free. Jules Godchaux and Edward F. Dickinson, the two Louisiana witnesses, declared they had tried in vain to see the President and had been informed that he had all the information he wantd on the sugar tariff.

Mr. Dickinson declared the President had never talked with any "practical sugar man" about the Louisiana situation, and that he had secured most of his information from National Committeeman Robert Ewing, a newspaper man; Sol Wexler, a banker; Representative Broussard and Senators Ransdell and Thornton.

"I have never seen Mr. Wilson on the sugar subject," interrupted Senator Thornton, who was sitting in the committee room.

Charges of the sugar men that they had been given assurances of the President's sympathy on the sugar question were based on statements Representative Broussard is said to have made to the witness after a visit to President-elect Wilson at Seagirt.

"I was assured by Mr. Broussard," said Harry Irwin, representing the Hilo-Hawaii Board of Trade, "that a plan endorsing a tariff reduction such as would not destroy any legitimate industry was prepared in Mr. Wilson's presence and sanctioned by Mr. Wilson with direct reference to the sugar question.

The fact that the Baltimore convention did not endorse free sugar and other circumstances, of the campaign, the witnesses said, had led them to the work for the Democratic ticket ad support Mr. Wilson in the belief that he would "have nothing to fear" from any movement for free sugar.

"We cast 50,000 or 60,000 votes for Wilson and subscribed money to his campaign in Louisiana," sai Jules Godchaux hotly, "on the assurances we thought we had that he would not favor free sugar."

After they got to Washington, Mr. Godchaux said, the sugar planters made vain efforts to see the President and talk with him.

Mr. Dickinson was emphatic in his statement that he was not an "insidious lobbyist," declaring he had looked up the term and found it meant "deceitful, lying and treacherous."

"Do you know of any misleading statements that have been circulated?" asked Senator Overman.

"Why, yes. Some of these statements and bulletins put out by the free sugar advocates are not truthful," he answered.

"Well, you admit there is insidious lobbying then?" retorted Senator Overman. "Please remember that the President has not charged you or your association with being 'insidious.'"

Mr. Dickinson held Mr. Ewing and others who had talked with the President before he made up his mind as to the sugar tariff, could not have explained the situation as a "practical sugar planter could."

"Why did Mr. Ewing come here?" asked Chairman Overman.

"I think he felt it was his duty," replied Mr. Dickinson. "He raised some $20,000 in Louisiana to help elect Mr. Wilson and seeing the destruction that was now to be wrought by the free sugar policy, I think he felt remorseful."

Senator Williams had informed him, Mr. Dickinson said, that "he thought two-thirds of the Senate Finance committee were against free trade, but that three-fourths would vote for it.

The character of the country-wide campaign organized against free sugar was detailed by the witnesses.

"We tried to get everybody we could to write letters and send telegrams," Mr. Dickinson said. "Mule raisers in Missouri; cotton mill men, in North Carolina; dredge builders, makers of axes, wedges—anybody who did business with us. We asked them all to write and wire you to try and convince you of the destruction that would come with free sugar."

The committee had not finished with the anti-sugar witnesses when it adjourned tonight. After several more have been heard the committee will begin the examination of those who have conducted the free sugar publicity campaign. The chief of these is Frank C. Lawry, of New York, who testified before another Congressional committee that he was employed by the Federal Sugar Refining Company.

ANOTHER SENSATION SPRUNG.

Affidavit Says Records Against Atlanta Officials Were "Padded."

Atlanta, Ga., June 11.—Another sensation was sprung here today in connection with the local political fight, involving Mayor James G. Woodward, certain members of the city council and officials of the police department. The Atlanta Constitution this morning published what purports to be an affidavit made by George M. Gentry, the stenographer who reported the conferences alleged to have been held in a hotel room here recently, in which a secret telephonic device was said to have been used against Mayor Woodward, Thomas B. Felder, a prominent local attorney; C. C. Jones, proprietor of a near-beer saloon; G. C. Febuary, secretary to Chief of Detectives N. A. Lanford, and others.

Gentry disappeared several days after the publication of the alleged records of the conferences.

E. O. Miles, an investigator, declares he located Gentry in Washington, D. C., and obtained from him the affidavit which Miles turned over to Mayor Woodward last night.

The alleged affidavit of Gentry declares that ... original transcription of his notes of the conferences was "padded," and altered.

The affidavit further states that Gentry did not hear Mayor Woodward mention the names of Chief of Police James L. Beavers and Chief of Detectives Lanford, as was shown in the published record of the conferences.

ANSWER BEING PREPARED

Washington Officials Framing Reply to Japan's Latest Note

Washington, June 11.—The answer of the United States to the last Japanese note regarding the California alien land legislation is now in preparation at the State Department. Secretary Bryan said today that the communication could not be completed before the end of this week.

Meanwhile, the utmost official reticence is observed as to the details of the negotiations, which will continue for an indefinite period. Neither side seems disposed to depart from the argumentative treatment of the subject which has characterized the correspondence from the beginning.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Winston-Salem, N. C., June 11.—The election of officers, hearing reports from Grand Lodge officers and the supplying of vacancies on the various committees constituted the order of business transacted at the second session of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, Domain of North Carolina, held in the Masonic Temple here this morning. The officers were chosen as follows:

Supreme Representative, for Two Years—A. S. Barnard, of Asheville.

Grand Chancellor—J. D. Pridgen, of Durham.

Grand Vice Chancellor—J. G. Baird, of Charlotte.

Grand Prelate—Rev. R. B. Owen, of Rocky Mount.

Grand Keeper of Records and Seal—W. T. Hollowell, of Goldsboro.

Grand Master at Arms—Charles H. Horner, of Asheville.

Grand Inner Guard—George W. Brittain, of Reidsville.

Grand Outer Guard—W. L. Stamey, of High Point.

The only contest of more than usual interest was that over of the office of Grand Chancellor.

At the afternoon session routine matters were taken up and at the close of the session Durham was chosen as the next place of meeting.

As usual, one of the most interesting features of the Grand Lodge was the gathering of the Dramatic Order, Knights of Khorrassan. They were in charge of affairs tonight and as had been expected there was a large class for initiation.

At the conclusion of the night session a sumptuous banquet was held at the Zinzendorf Hotel. It is estimated that there are over 200 visiting Pythians in the city.

The opening session was held on the campus of the Salem Academy and College, Wednesday night. Mr. J. A. McDowell, of Damon Lodge, Winston-Salem, was master of ceremonies and introduced the speakers of the evening. Mayor O. B. Eaton spoke on "The United City"; President J. L. Ludlow, of the Board of Trade, "The City Industrially," as has been published, and Rev. Edward S. Crosland delivered the address of welcome. The three addresses were appropriate and entertaining. Response was made by Col. Walker Taylor, of Wilmington. He briefly reviewed a few of the best things which the order stands for, making special mention of the Pythian Orphanage at Clayton. Rev. H. E. Rondthaler, president of the Salem Academy and College, made the concluding address.

THE GRAND VIZIER OF TURKEY SLAIN

Shot While Riding in Motor Car With Other Officials

THE ASSASSINS CAPTURED

GRAND VIZIER. ....

The Tragedy Described by Occupants of Automobile—Ten Shots Were Fired by Bold Murderers. Official Account.

Constantinople, June 11.—Mahmoud Schefket Pasha, the Turkish grand vizier and minister of war, was shot and killed by assassins today. His aide de camp, Lieut. Ibrahim Bey, was also killed.

Prince Said Halim, foreign minister and ex-president of the council of State, has been appointed grand vizier ad interim. All the other ministers retain their portfolios.

The Official Account.

The following official account of the assassination has been issued.

"On leaving the ministry of war this morning, the grand vizier entered a motor car with the intention of proceeding to the sublime porte, but the car was obliged to stop while going through Bayezid and Divan Yolu Square because the road was torn up. Some persons in another car, whose identity has not been established fired ten shots at the car. The grand vizier, who was severely wounded, was taken back to the ministry of war, where he died half an hour later.

Lieut. Ibraham Bey, who was accompanying Mahmoud Schefket Pasha, also was hit by some of the bullets and subsequently died."

Suspects Arrested.

A man named Topal Tewfik has been arrested; he is suspected of being one of the assassins. He had in his possession two revolvers and some cartridges.

Capt. Schreef, who was riding with the grand vizier, describes the tragedy as follows:

"We were leaving Bayezid Square when our motor stopped on account of repairs being made to the road. I heard an explosion, but attached no importance to it, thinking that a tire had burst.

But Schefket Pasha fell forward. I took him in my arms to hold him up and saw the blood on his face.

"The reports continued and I jumped from the motor to seize the assassins, but they fled in their car, with the exception of Topal Tewfik, who had no time to get in. One of the assassins in the car fired at me repeatedly and I cannot understand why I was not hit."

The motor car used by the assassins was found this afternoon and the owner was arrested. He has already made certain admissions.

Regret Expressed.

Rome, June 11.—The assassination of the Turkish grand vizier has caused a profound impression here. General regret is expressed over the tragedy notwithstanding the fact that Mahmoud Shefket Pasha was one of the most bitter opponents of Italy during the Italio-Turkish war. The opinion is held in Rome that the death of Schefket Pasha was a severe blow to the young Turks.

SATURDAY'S POLO MATCH

Americans to Contest With British for International Trophy

Hempstead, N. Y., June 11.—With "Monte" Waterbury out of the game because of a broken finger, and the famous "Big Four" therefore no longer intact, close followers of American polo are inclined to the belief that Saturday's coming match with the British challengers for the international trophy will be anything but a walkover.

Louis Stoddard, who took Waterbury's place yesterday, is a capable player and performed excelletly but he has ot had Waterbury's experience in working with the othrs and it is feared that team play may suffer. Again it is anticipated by many that the British might try to execute American tactics that proved so successful and try to rush the opposition off its feet at the start. How the American defense would stand such an offense is problematical.

Betting odds today ruled around 10 to 6 on the Americans.

After yesterday's hot encounter none of the players on either side indulged in much work today. The Englishmen had light exercise and the Americans a similar work out.

ATHLETICS' STREAK BROKEN

St. Louis Terminated Their String of Victories—Naps Won 15-inning Game—Senators and Yankees Lost

The Philadelphia Athletics, who have for three weeks been traveling the long lane that verily, seemed to have no turning or termination, found an abrupt curve to the thoroughfare in the ninth inning of yesterday's game, when the St. Louis Browns, featuring Sam Agnew at the bat, manufactured a four-base clout from one of Big Chief Bender's twisters, homing two marathoners who were already on the paths, ahead of Agnew, winning the game five to two and breaking into Philadelphia's string of 15 consecutive victories.

Yesterday was the final game of the series, and as the Athletics now have a series with the Naps ahead, the horizon presents anything but a clear view, in face of the further complication that said Naps are now only 70 points behind and the winning of the next three games would place them well in front.

The Cleveland Naps played the Boston Red Sox until sunset yesterday afternoon for the final game of the series, winning finally by the score of nine to five, in the 15th inning. Cleveland had the advantage of an early lead, but in the sixth inning, Gregg was wild and the Sox jumped on him for four tallies, two of which were forced in by bases on balls. The next business before the house for the Naps is a series with the Athletics, starting at Philadelphia this afternoon.

The Washington Senators dropped back into fourth place yesterday when the Detroit Tigers defeated them 11 to 0, Crawford and Cobb featuring with home runs, these two clouts alone bringing in a total of six runs.

The Chicago White Sox evened up the series with the Yankees, by winning yesterday's game, the final.

Athletics' Streak Broken

Philadelphia, June 11.—With two men out, a home run by Catcher Sam Agnew scoring two runners ahead of him in the ninth inning today, checked Philadelphia's winning streak of 15 consecutive victories and gave St. Louis the final game of the series 5 to 2. Austin was benched for protesting a decision at third.

Naps Took Long Session

Boston, June 11.—A 15-inning contest between Boston and Cleveland ended about sunset with a 9 to 5 victory for Cleveland, when with the bases full in the final inning, Olson stole home.

The game was replete with brilliant playing, Cleveland getting an early lead which promised victory. Boston went after Gregg in the sixth inning, and by good hitting and the wildness of Gregg scored four runs. Two of these tallies were forced in by bases on balls, another resulted from a sacrifice fly and the final pair was due to Carrigan's double.

Crawford hit a home run to the centerfield fence in the second inning with the bases full and later Cobb drove one over the fence with first base occupied. Washington used three pitchers.

PHYSICIAN ISSUES STATEMENT

Regarding His Anti-Tuberculosis Vaccine—Department Investigating

Asheville, N. C., June 11.—Dr. Karl Von Ruck, whose anti-tuberculosis vaccine is being investigated by the Naval Department of the United States, issued a signed statement to the press tonight wherein he declared that his vaccine was not a "cure" for the advanced stages of tuberculosis. In part, he says:

"This preparation was intended primarily for preventative vaccination, and in this respect the results are manifest and indubitable. There has also been observed curative action in the early stages of the disease. But far advanced, fedrile and complicated cases of tuberculosis cannot expect results. In order to prevent disappointment tubercular patients should not come to this city except on the advice of their physicians."

THE DREAM WINS.

In Exciting Motor Boat Race From Philadelphia to Bermuda.

Hamilton, Bermuda, June 11.—The Dream, owned by Charles L. Lagen, of the Yachtsmen's Club, the smallest of the contestants in the motor boat race from Philadelphia to St. Davids Head, Bermuda, crossed the finishing line at 55 minutes past 4 o'clock this evening.

The Dream had a time allowance of 16 hours, 44 minutes and 36 seconds over the scratch boat Barbara II, which crossed the finishing line at 25 minutes and 20 seconds after 3 o'clock this morning.

According to the unofficial corrected time The Dream is winner of the race by three hours, 14 minutes and 56 seconds.

The motor boat Barbara II crossed the finishing line at 25 minutes 20 seconds past 3 o'clock this morning in the race from Philadelphia, which started on Saturday at 1:30 P. M. She was first sighted at 10 minutes after midnight.

The skipper of the Barbara II declared that he had encountered northeast winds during the entire voyage from Philadelphia. He estimated that the boat had lost two hours owing to the course taken being too much to the east.

The Barbara II came into Hamilton at 7:15 this morning. She had not suffered any damage during the run.

Up to 7:30 had been heard of The Dream or the Tocsin, the first of which has an allowance of 16 hours, 44 minutes, 36 seconds, and the second an allowance of 13 hours, 6 minutes, 36 seconds.

The elapsed time of the Barbara II since her departure from Philadelphia, deducting 41 minutes for the difference of time between that city and Bermuda, is unofficially calculated at 85 hours, 14 minutes, 20 seconds.

DR. STILES WILL SPEAK

Interesting Regular Meeting of Chamber of Commerce Today

Official announcement was made yesterday in notices issued to members of the Chamber of Commerce that Dr. Charles W. Stiles, of the Public Health and Marine Hospital Service, who is indefinitely located in Wilmington, will speak at the regular monthly meeting of the organization this afternoon at 4 o'clock.

It will be recalled that Dr. Stiles' splendid service to humanity through the discovery of hookworm disease and its treatment, has given him signal recognition in his profession and his address to the Chamber regarding a matter of public concern will no doubt be very profitable and interesting to all who attend. He will explain the plans he has formulated in connection with a medical inspection of the public schools of the city and county.

In addition to the members of the Chamber physicians and dentists have also been extended a cordial invitation and there will doubtless be a good attendance to hear his address. Other matters of general importance will be transacted.

WITH THE MOVIES

In an atmosphere of pure comfort and thoroughly hygienic, due to perfect ventilation, folks who visit the Grand Theatre today—the handsomest theatre with the biggest show for the tiniest price, 5 cents all the time—will witness an expectionally swell bill. Four of the choicest of films will be presented. The Vitagraph's giantic dramatic creation, "The Mouse and the Lion," a gripping detective story of the New York slums, will blaze the way. There's another dramatic that will rank with it and it's a superb novelty. Edison's mysterious and weird photoplay triumph, "The Phantom Ship." The fun will be presented in "It Wasn't Poison After All," telling how a "kid" plays a trick on a drug clerk. The most entertaining educational film of years will be offered in "Bees and Honey."

At The Bijou

With that noted and popular actor, Mr. G. M. Anderson, leading the way in his most pretentious and thrilling film production, "Broncho Billy and the Rustler's Child," Essanay's finest creation of recent days, the favorite amusement spot, the attractive, ever-comfortable Bijou, will set before the folks of Wilmington today a menu that will indeed tempt them. Other notable stars are Kalem's "Woe of the Battle," a war story with a crash that lovers of the "movies" so delight in. The Vitagraph Company has the stellar fun film on today that will tickle ribs with more vigor than a strong hand wielding a big feather duster. It is "Mixed Identities." There is also a beautiful and fantastic film on today in "Gala Day Parade, Yokohama, Japan." This film is notably interesting on account of the present Japanese mix-up.

"UNCLE PHIL" DEAD

Well-known Anti-Bellum Negro Passes Away

Washington, June 11.—Anthony Phillips, an old Georgia negro, known as "Uncle Phil," along the Southern Railway lines and whose annual 'possum dinners were a delight to the late President Spencer and other officials of the railway, is dead. His body was taken to Atlanta today for burial.

"Uncle Phil," born in slavery at Marshallville, Ga., in 1835, remained after the Emancipation proclamation, with his former master, Joe Marshall, until the latter died. He was afterward employed in Atlanta and New Orleans and finally entered the Southern Railway service. The old man was a great 'possum hunter and once a year he gave a 'possum dinner which became an event with high officials of the railway. He had lived in Washington for the past 20 years.

TINKER'S REDS TOOK FINAL

Defeated Phillies, Near Riot Developing—Giants Defeated Chicago Cubs—Pirates and Braves Both Winners.

The Phillies were bested in the final game of the series with the Cincinnati Reds yesterday afternoon, the game developing into a near riot, when Knabe and Manager Tinker came to words and later blows around the vicinity of second base, both players being expelled from the game by the umpires. Rube Benton pitched superb ball. Mayer was rather loose and retired in favor of Moore.

The Giants forced the final game with the Cubs into one extra inning, winning in the 10th by a timely batting rally. Fromme, the former Cincinnati pitcher, fulfilled all of McGraw's expectations, holding the locals to five hits, only two of which counted in the score. McGraw had said that Fromme would play better ball for the Giants than he had ever played before, and fulfilled the prophecy yesterday.

The Brooklyn Car Dodgers were hammered for a total of 18 hits by the Pittsburg Pirate crew yesterday and dropped the final 11 to 3. Catcher Gibson was back in the game with Pittsburg for the first time since he broke his ankle on April 20th.

The Boston Braves hit Tyler effectively in two innings of yesterday's game and won from the St. Louis Cardinals, 5 to 3.

Near-Riot at Cincy.

Cincinnati, June 11.—In a game marked by near rioting for which Manager Tinker of Cincinnati, and Knabe, the second baseman of Philadelphia, were expelled from the field, Cincinnati took the final contest of the series here today 3 to 2. The mix-up between Tinker and Knabe came in the seventh. Previously the two had engaged in a wordy war at second base and when the Cincinnati manager slid into this sack in the seventh, both players mixed it up while lying on the ground. When they stood up they attempted to get together and it required the services of both umpires and a number of players to stop the fracas. Neither was injured.

Benton pitched superb ball. Mayer was hit rather freely and retired in favor of Moore. Dodge was spiked in the second and had to retire.

Fromme, the former Cincinnati pitcher held the locals to five hits, only two of which were bunched for the tieing score in the seventh. Smith was hit hard, but the visitors were cut off by the splendid fielding of Bridwell, Zimmerman, Saier and Leach.

St. Louis got one hit in each, the first and second innings and then went hitless until the eighth inning, when three singles and a sacrifice fly netted two runs.

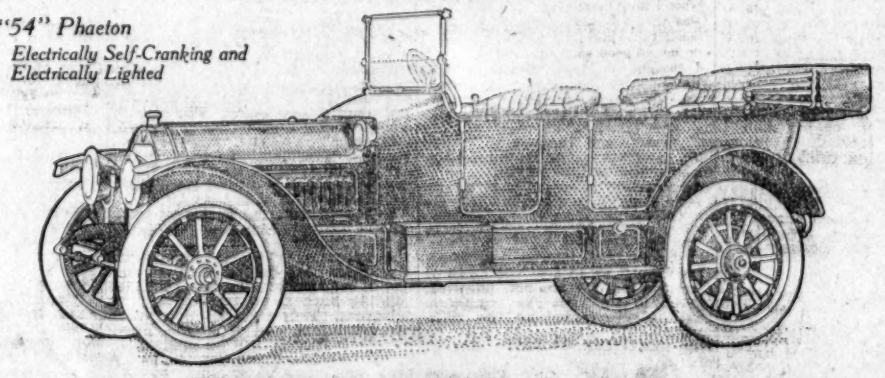
The World's Largest Builders of Six-Cylinder Automobiles

"54" Phaeton
Electrically Self-Cranking and Electrically Lighted



Why It Should Be a HUDSON

Generally speaking, all good cars are best known because of one distinctive feature.

One is spoken of as being well built Another has a reputation for the beauty of its finish.

One maker has gained confidence because of the manner of treating customers.

Large volume is advanced by another as an explanation of quality at low price.

All these are sound reasons for consideration

Each and all are essential in the policy of any company that succeeds.

But, if you look closely, you will find that while one lays greater emphasis upon one of these claims than upon others, all successful makers are in common in their position in such essentials.

All, to succeed, must build their cars well.

All must assure service to the owner.

All must combine luxurious finish with mechanical excellence.

Large volume is essential to any success, for without volume the value is not in keeping with the price that must be charged.

How 48 Engineers Made HUDSON Distinctive

And as every successful car is referred to with reference to the one feature for which it is best known, the HUDSON is famous because of its advanced design.

HUDSON cars have always been known to be leaders as the most advanced type of engineering skill

That means simplicity in design and operation. It indicates that essentials are less clumsily accomplished than in cars not so well designed. It assures accessibility.

Since the skill of designers is not confined to mechanical details, it also means more beautiful lines, a greater luxury, a richer appearance and an individuality as characteristic as artists put into their pictures or as architects work into their buildings.

The best engineering brains in the industry are responsible for the two new models of HUDSONS. The 48 experts, including Howard E. Coffin, who designed these cars, have had wide experience.

Combined they represent about all of value that is known in the way of motor car building.

Each man has influenced the design of the car only so far as he has proved his leadership

These men come from every automobile building country.

Most of them are regular employees of this Company. Some are associated as engineers with other institutions, and we used them merely in an advisory capacity. Some are consulted by other manufacturers.

Directing all these men is Howard E. Coffin, America's foremost engineer. Thus we have succeeded in producing cars that are distinctive and that have many features of advantage to the driver and owner not possessed by others, even though they give an almost perfect service.

Why a Six—Especially a HUDSON

It is electric self-cranking, electrically lighted and all any automobile can be in comfort, convenience, luxury, service, equipment and value

The "54" HUDSON supplies every demand made of any automobile, in speed, get-away, safety, power, luxurious equipment, distinctive appearance and comfort.

It is not merely a "Six" made so by the addition of two cylinders to a good four-cylinder car. It is capable of a speed far greater than you will ever care to call upon it to give. It will jump to a speed of 58 miles an hour in 30 seconds from a standing start. No grade is too steep for it. Its equipment, complete in every detail, includes the most famous system of electric self-cranking, electric lighting—dynamo type—and ignition device to be had, known as the Delco, patented. There is also an illuminated dash and extension lamp, mohair top, curtain, rain-vision windshield, speedometer, clock, demountable rims, 36 x 4½-inch tires, 127-inch wheel base, etc.

The seat cushions are 12 inches deep. The finest materials are used throughout. No detail of finish or equipment is skimped or overlooked.

"54" HUDSON Models: Five-passenger Touring Car and Phaetons and Two-passenger Roadster, $2950 each, f. o. b. Detroit. Seven-passenger Touring Car, $150 additional. Limousine, Seven-passenger, $3750; Coupe, Three-passenger, $2950. Open bodies furnished with Limousine and Coupe at an extra charge.

The four-cylinder HUDSON—the "37"—is a masterpiece of its type.
The price is $1875 complete. : : Same body types as the Six.

PLACE GETTYSBURG MARKERS

Meeting of Commissioners Today to Take Steps for Indicating Position of State Troops—Other Raleigh News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., June 11.—The Gettysburg Battleground Commission and the State Historical Commission are to have a joint meeting here tomorrow for the preliminary steps in the work of marking the points "farthest to the front" attained by the North Carolina troops in that decisive battle of 50 years ago.

The present plan is to send a special committee to the Gettysburg battlefield as early as possible, before July 1st, to tentatively mark the points that are desired to be permanently indicated and then provide temporary markers that will be in position during the Semi-Centennial Celebration July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, during which time the positions marked can be criticised by great numbers of men who were in the battle. Then with the light before them shed by the opinions of the visitors, the commission can permanently fix the positions and install the permanent markers that the legislative act specifies must be "inexpensive". There is not thought to be time now to get the permanent markers in position by the time for the approaching celebration, the commission having only been appointed by the Governor during the past few days. The commissioners are Judge W. A. Montgomery, J. A. Long, D. C. Waddell, C. B. Watson and W. F. Utley The State Historical Commission to co-operate consists of Col. J. Bryan Grimes, T. M. Pittman, D. H. Hill, W. J. Peele and M. C. S. Noble, with R. D. W. Connor as secretary.

Governor Craig issued a requisition today on the Governor of Virginia for Steve Propst, wanted in Richmond county for serious assault and for selling cocaine. He is being held in Newport News for the North Carolina authorities.

A requisition by the Governor of Georgia was honored by the Governor of North Carolina today for Ed and George Walker, who are under arrest in Columbus, Polk county, and will be carried back to the Cracker State to answer the charge of assault and carrying concealed weapon.

A charter was issued today for the Carolina Foundry & Machine Co., Winston-Salem, capital $50,000 authorized and $14,200 subscribed by A. R. Lewis, J. F. Lewis and J. F. Gerner. Other charters are for the Smith Warehouse Co., Wilson, capital $25,000 authorized and $5,310 subscribed by E. B. Capps, J. S. Hayes and about 100 other citizens of Wilson and adjacent counties for tobacco warehouse business; and the Thomasville Motor Co., of Thomasville, capital reduced from $2,100 to $1,100, S. E. Allen, president.

The contract was awarded today to W. B. Barrow, of this city, for the erection of three buildings each 60x150 feet at the State Fair grounds for stock, cattle, sheep and hogs. They are to be thoroughly drained and modern in every particular and are to be ready for use at the opening of the next State fair October 20th. Secretary J. E. Pogue says of the new buildings that they will be a revelation to the stockmen when they come to the 1913 fair.

The Raleigh Commission Government Council today voted to impose a special tax of $200 on drug stores for filling prescriptions for whiskey. They fixed a number of other license taxes, including $1 per year on owners of automobiles for the privilege of using the streets.

Insurance Commissioner James R. Young has gone to Burlington to deliver an address before the 10th annual convention of the North Carolina Building & Loan Associations in session there this week. His theme will be "The Value of Systematic Accounting in Building and Loan Associations."

The State Department of Insurance is calling the attention of the insuring public in this State to the fact that the Provident Insurance Association of Texas has been refused license to do business in this State because of unsatisfactory conditions, and that the company is undertaking to do an "underground" business.

A petition was received today by the Corporation Commission from the Cape Fear Gravel Co., of Lillington, for a reduction in the freight rate on gravel clay, which the petition sets out is a very valuable material for road construction, the present freight rates exacted by the railroads hindering very greatly the industry of getting it out and shipping it for road building. The commission has taken the matter up with the railroad companies. The Cape Fear plant is on the Raleigh, Charlotte & Southern Railroad in Harnett county.

The North Carolina Christian Endeavor Union opened its first real business session for the 1913 convention in the Presbyterian church with a "quiet hour" under the leadership of Mr. E. B. Crow, of this city. There was an interesting open parliament conducted by General Secretary William Shaw, of Boston. There was a season for "floating introductions" and announcement of committees and a recess at noon for dinner. In the afternoon there was an open air meeting in Pullen Park, opened with prayer and praise service by Charles H. Stephenson. The organization of efficiency societies was discussed by W. A. Harper, and efficiency missionary methods by Rev. A. B. Kimball. "Efficient Citizenship," was the theme of an address by Capt. J. P. Russell, of Lumberton, who is treasurer of the State Union. There was an address on "The Four Christian Endeavor Fundamentals" by General Secretary William Shaw that closed the afternoon session, which was followed by a luncheon served on the lawn in the park.

The evening session included as special features an illustrated address on the Blue Ridge Missionary Conference by E. J. Harrall; an address on "Training the Church for the Future", by General Secretary William Shaw; and the closing period of prayer by Rev. W. McC. White.

A Worker Appreciates This

Wm. Morris, a resident of Florence, Oregon, says: "For the last fourteen years my kidneys and bladder incapacitated me for all work. About eight months ago I began using Foley Kidney Pills, and they have done what other medicines failed to do, and now I am doing and feeling fine. I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills." Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit-forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine.—Robt. R. Bellamy. FROM THE UPPER CAPE FEAR

Battle of Bethel, Cold Wave and Other Things of Interest

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Fayetteville, N. C., June 10.—Fifty-two years ago today was fought the Battle of Bethel in which approximately 1,100 North Carolinians and 300 Virginians, on the Confederate side, struggled for victory under the hot Summer's sun with 4,500 Federals under command of General Pierce, the battle ending in the complete defeat, demoralization and flight of the enemy.

This event possesses a peculiar interest for Fayetteville where two of the finest military companies that ever followed the "Stars and Bars" were organized, and which were active participants in the battle. These were the Fayetteville Independent Light Infantry, commanded by Capt. Wright Huske, and the LaFayette Light Infantry, commanded by Capt. Jos. B. Starr. These companies numbered over one hundred men each—not all men in age and statue, but the boys in their 'teens were as full of courage and patriotism as were their older comrades. Composed of the very flower of Fayetteville's young manhood, they went forth in the first regiment that left North Carolina for the defense of Virginia and the South. Alas! how few of them remain among the fast-disappearing representatives of the "Lost Cause."

For three days the weather here has spelled C-O-L-D in 36-point Gothic type. The thermometer has ranged low down in the fifties, and overcoats and blankets that had been consigned to Summer quarters with the moth-ball flavor, have been hurriedly withdrawn and placed where they will "do the most good." Fires? Well, you may safely bet, they are largely in evidence.

The "Head of Navigation" is now grappling with the dull season. "Money is tight," and only gilt-edged paper can hope to receive the favorable consideration of the loan committees of the banks. Much of this, too, is placed on the waiting list. There is no alarm among the banks. They are simply pursuing a policy of caution and are husbanding their resources for the prospective demands for funds with which to move the Fall crops.

Speaking of banks, it will be gratifying to his troops of friends in Wilmington to know that Mr. Frank H. Stedman, so long sheriff of New Hanover county, is succeeding well here in the banking business. The Cumberland Savings & Trust Co., of which he is president, and the largest stockholder, though young in years, is a "Little Giant" in strength and is fast winning its way into popular favor. It is on a regular dividend-paying basis, and the surplus and profit account is steadily growing.

It is the opinion of competent and experienced business men that Fayetteville presents the finest opening in the State for an exclusive wholsale dry goods and notions house. Since the retirement of H. & E. J. Lilly and Starr & Williams, many years ago, there has been no such business here, and it is believed that with the increase in population and railroad facilities in those sections of the State tributary to Fayetteville, a wholesale dry goods and notion house would prove an instant success. RESINOL RELIEVED ITCHING AT ONCE

And Completely Cured Skin Humor.

Nov. 1, 1912.—"At first little red spots were seen on my arms and body, which I noticed were getting larger every day. They itched me so much that I scratched myself until I bled. There were times when I stood up all night and scratched. I was troubled about three weeks, during which time I used ——, which seemed to do me no good whatever. Then, finally, I thought of trying Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. As soon as I applied Resinol Ointment I felt much relief. After using it a few times, I noticed the sore spots slowly fading away, and in about a month I was cured." (Signed) Adolph Schoen, 742 Shepherd Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The soothing, healing balsams in Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, penetrate every tiny pore of the skin, clearing it of all impurities, driving away eczema, rashes, ringworm, psoriasis, and other eruptions, and making pimples and blackheads impossible. Prescribed by physicians for eighteen years. For free samples write to Dept. 16-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment (in opal jars, 50c and $1.00) and Resinol Soap (25c per cake).

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Thursday, June 12, 1913.

What is so rare as a raw day in June?

Don't mind the weather so the roof don't fall in.

California and the average editor are not afraid of the Japanese.

The ballot might not help some women, but it would help others and spoil some.

Baron Mumm having married an American woman had better keep on being mum.

After having a row at home some men take to the woods while others make for the club.

A woman thinks she doesn't have to "honor and obey" unless she is treated right and has her own way.

Some men never let you see 'em first, but if you do they are always walking so fast they are soon out of sight.

When China gets time to look around a bit she may discover that she had our banking system 6,000 years ago.

A soft answer doesn't turn away near as much wrath as bringing in the stove wood without missing a single morning.

When a fellow is up against competition that it is impossible to meet he is more than apt to unload if he only gets the chance.

How many farmers went anywhere and got very far during the past week of rains, mud and heavy sand? Don't all answer at once.

A new law in Wisconsin prohibits gossiping. Our lady friends in Wisconsin doubtless consider that law one more blow to liberty.

A cold rain in dry territory was more so, owing to the fact that the stoves had been taken down and folded away for the Summer.

News: So far, President Wilson has not gone into the basement of the White House to wallow on the mat and take jiu-jitsu lessons from a Jap.

When father went off to take a June vacation so the family could have July for theirs, he found hot Scotchless hot Scotch weather in the mountains.

A woman in North Carolina owns a farm that nets her $5,000 a year. It is easy to understand how a man can love the very ground a woman walks on.

A great big duffer doesn't say much for himself when he admits that a little bit of a woman has driven him to drink. It is better to take the bit and be quietly hitched to the waterwagon.

"Men should take their wife's hands once in a while," urges a writer. He forgets, however, that their wives never get in the game. If they did, the men wouldn't stand for it a minute.

The English suffragettes seem to have gone crazy when they decided they would not stand for it any longer when they discovered that women haven't got equal rights with men in a more or less free country.

Some men have made enough speeches to make several volumes bound in book form, but when winnowed for nuggets there are very few to be found. Verily, it seems that "the shallows murmur but the depths are dumb."

The real exuberance of delight will soon be experienced when the thin rind, nectar meated North Carolina watermelon will be sliced with as much avidity as the Standard Oil Company recently sliced its $60,000,000 "melon."

Thus writes Ella Wheeler Wilcox: "There is nothing sweeter than to hear in the serene hour of a starlit night a gentle voice calling you, calling you." Well, we should say it depends on the kind of hand you hold on a show down.

A New Jersey man complains that his wife compelled him to sleep under the house. The presumption is that he was really compelled by force of circumstances to sleep there till daylight after having come home at 3 A. M. and received no answer from the inside.

June brides are as innocent as they are sweet. A Baltimore man's chum got married and he sent a unique present, which the bride acknowledged as follows: "Your lovely etching was received and gives us both pleasure. It is now in the parlor hanging above the piano where we hope to see you very soon, and as often as you find it agreeable." Hanging above the piano might not be so agreeable to a bachelor.

At the recent wholesale grocers' convention in the West many good words were said for canned vegetables. We happen to live in the Nation's Garden Spot, but we can less of our products than is done elsewhere in America. We buy canned goods by the millions instead of supplying our home demand, if not the great demand abroad. When will we learn to keep our money at home by becoming producers and consumers of own products?

THE RADIUS OF A CITY

The manufacturing city is now boasting of its radius. When its products go to all parts of the world, the world is its radius. Detroit is now boasting that its radius is world-wide. Detroit's automobile product is making Detroit famous in every part of the civilized world and also beyond the confines of civilization. In view of the fact that the National Association of Manufacturers will hold its convention at Detroit this year, American Industries, the manufacturers' magazine, says:

"In the making of automobiles, motor trucks and accessories, the fame of Detroit has overshadowed, in the public mind, its achievements along other industrial lines. Much has been said of the two-cars-per-minute that are now turned out every working day in the year, in the Detroit plants. The remarkable development of the automobile industry here—from the infant beginnings of a decade ago to its present stalwart proportions—is the marvel of this industrial age. Sixty per cent of all the automobiles made in the United States are built right in the 'City of the Straits,' while eighty-five per cent of all American auto manufacturing is represented by the firms having headquarters in Detroit, though some of their plants may be located elsewhere. The output of the city alone for 1913 will be 300,000 cars, and you can place them 'within hailing distance of each other clear around the earth'; or 'put one to the mile and reach the moon with 60,000 cars to spare'—or juggle with the prodigious figures in any other way dear to the heart of the statistician, to make it clear that Detroit certainly does build some automobiles! The total output for 1913 of all the automobile companies having headquarters in Detroit is scheduled to sell for over $500,000,000. One company alone will build 200,000 cars, and has already won the reputation of the greatest success, financially, in the history of manufacturing.

"But if it is impossible to think of Detroit without thinking of motor cars, it is neevrtheless well to remember that the Michigan metropolis claims the palm, also, for leading all other American cities in the production of stoves, varnish, pharmaceutical manufactures, aluminum castings, soda and salt products, shipbuilding (on the Great Lakes), adding machines and overalls. Detroit also has the largest axle factory, the largest coin machine factory, and the largest seed house in the world. Further than this, there are but a few of the vast industrial corporations for which America is noted that do not have a branch factory, at least in Detroit."

That is not all about the manufacturing city of Michigan. Nothing is said about its hundreds of smaller industries that are causing the population to grow and become thrifty. The population exceeds a half million (566,000) at present, and the Detroit Board of Commerce estimates that it will be more than a million in 1925. American Industries illustrates that beautiful and enterprising city, and it is as charming as it is thrifty and enterprising. Detroit is boasting that it is the genuine "City Beautiful" and it is said "the traffic on the Detroit river exceeds that of any other of the world's inland water ways or sea ports." Two hundred and forty vessels pass Detroit every twenty-four hours!

So much for a manufacturing city. A manufacturing city furnishes its own commerce. It becomes a great exporter of its own products and becomes a great importer of raw materials. The world's cities which are doing the largest commerce are those which are the greatest of the world's industrial cities. Manufacturing and commerce go hand in hand. Commerce is only the hand-maid of industry. Water and rail furnish the transportation facilities that make a city ideal for manufacturing. It is up to the people to do the manufacturing.

How much radius shall we make for Wilmington?

NO CALAMITY HOWLERS

At the annual meeting of the United Commercial Travelers in Salisbury last week, Senator Overman was the principal speaker. He recognized the worth and influence of the traveling salesmen who go all over the country building up its business and coming in contact with all sorts of men in every State, every city and every hamlet. It is against the interests of the drummers to scatter gloom, and they don't do it if they know themselves. Senator Overman sized them up correctly when he declared that "the traveling man is an optimist, never a calamity howler." Referring to his speech, the Salisbury Post observes:

"We have no doubt but that the Senator has had his ears fully dumbed by the loud and continuous noises of the calamity howlers who have infested Washington during the past few months while Congress has been trying to revise the tariff in accord with the needs and demands of the common folks of the land. The calamity howler just now who is being most generally heard is the fellow who is protesting against a tariff in the interest of the many buyers and not in the interest of the few protected manufacturers, and no one has seen and heard more of this than the faithful Democrats who are laboring to bring about the demands in tariff laws."

The calamity howlers are the Wall Street gamblers and the special interests who howl because they may lose their tariff graft. They even accuse President Wilson of being a "near lobbyist." They fail to recognize the difference. What President Wilson is doing he has the right to do as the elected representative of the people to whom he has made a pledge. A lobbyist represents some special interest that want the privilege of exploiting the people. There is a vast difference.

KIND WORDS.

The Star appreciates more than it can say the following very kindly and flattering reference to its industrial edition issued on Tuesday, the notice being from its enterprising neighbor, The Evening Dispatch:

"Our morning contemporary, The Star, presented its readers this morning with one of the handsomest special editions ever issued in North Carolina and one that will be a tremendous 'booster' for the city of Wilmington. The Star today, in connection with its regular daily issue, sent forth a Progress Edition of 40 pages—each page teeming with solid, bright facts and attractive pictures of some branch of Wilmington business life, or of some of the big resources to be found in this city. Besides being valuable, on account of the important information it so timely disseminates and the indisputable argument it presents in behalf of Wilmington's worth and glowing prospects for the future, it is a most attractive souvenir of Wilmington. Its mechanical appearance is especially catchy and handsome. We congratulate our neighbor upon its swell piece of enterprise."

The Pennsylvania Senate has passed an act to tax hard coal 2 1-2 per cent. of its actual value at the mines. That is a heavy tax on production and it will yield $5,000,000 annually. That means that consumers will have to pay 2 1-2 per cent. more for their coal, so Pennsylvania will reach out as far as North Carolina and levy on us for revenue. It is not wise to tax production, but the better policy would be to encourage production and tax the increment from it. The most unjustifiable tax of all is a tax on something that is totally consumed and leaves no value behind.

The Boston Transcript rises to make this observation with reference to a Democratic Congressman: "Congressman Lloyd, of Missouri, chairman of the Committee on Accounts of the House, which looks after patronage matters, has appointed his brother clerk at $2,500 and his son assistant clerk at $1,800." The only redeeming thing that can be said about Republicans and Democrats who do that is that it shows tender and solicitous regard for all the members of the family. "For me and my wife, son John and his wife—us four and no more."

In Winston-Salem the board of aldermen having begun a movement for a clean city has passed an ordinance prohibiting the distribution of circulars, hand-bills, posters, etc., on the streets, sidewalks, parks or in the front yards and lawns of the dwelling houses of the city. A fine of $50 or 30 days imprisonment is provided as the punishment for the offense. This ordinance is a good one. It does anything but improve the appearance of yards, streets and parks to have hand bills scattered around. The newspapers are the proper places for advertising and the price per reader is less than the price paid per reader by the distributors of circulars, to say nothing of the injustice of littering the yards of people who attempts to keep their premises fairly decent.—Charlotte Chronicle.

Along with the increase in taxation, the people of Mecklenburg should be given another thing—better management of the public roads. A repair system that would keep the roads in order and stop the waste of hundreds of dollars should be the first consideration. The laying out of roads for the benefit of the public, rather than so much for private interests should be another. Roads laid off for the general public good and the proper maintenance of the roads would secure results for which the people would not be unwilling to pay the tribute of taxation. The tax rate is not too high, but it is one for which judicious account should be made. A total of $1.16 on the $100 is not an excessive tax for Mecklenburg. On the contrary, it is surprisingly low in view of the obligations imposed on a county of progressive activities, and the only concern is that the best results be obtained. The repair of the roads is the chief of these.—Charlotte Observer.

GLORIOUS FOURTH AT DUNN

Town Will Celebrate in Grand Style—Fight on "Blind Tigers"

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Dunn, N. C., June 9.—Dunn and the surrounding community are going to celebrate the 4th of July in grand style. The Chamber of Commerce and the city fathers are determined to make a success of the event. Mr. McD. Holliday is chairman of the committee on arrangements; Mr. Eugene T. Lee has been chosen as chief marshall.

The committee has seen the merchants and the business men of the town, and they are offering prizes for the winners in foot races, climbing the greasy pole, water contests by the fire companies, bag races, the finest teams, the best singing class and various other events of interest. The merchants are going to have floats, the military company, the various organizations of the city will take part in the parade. Music will be furnished for the occasion by the local band.

The city fathers are determined to clean up the dives and "blind tigers" which have been a menace to the town for some time. They have employed a special police officer to devote his whole time to the detection and prosecution of the law-breakers. Recorder Clarence J. Smith held court every day last week. And from the number of tigers before the court it would seem that the only thing needed to get these wiley beasts brought to justice is to have an officer who will work up the cases and bring them to justice. The town officials were fortunate in getting as this special officer a man who has had large experience in this class of work. Since he came on duty, several of the more noted tigers have left town and others have closed up their places of business.

Some time ago the Chamber of Commerce offered a prize of $5 to the person sending in the best slogan for Dunn. Quite a good many sent in slogans from different parts of the State, and many of them were good. The executive committee awarded the prize to Mr. A. A. Joseph, of Goldsboro, who sent in this slogan with an appropriate cut: "Dunn, the Livest Town Under the Sun." Mr. Joseph must be an artist, as his cut was outlined. The words "Dunn" and "Sun" are in large letters with the other words in smaller type coming between, with a large sun forming the background.

CLOSE AT I. O. O. F. SCHOOL.

Four Graduates at First Commencement at Goldsboro Institution.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Goldsboro, N. C., June 9.—Four bright, promising young girls compose the graduating class at the first commencement exercises ever held in the new graded and high school at the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home in this city, the first service of which began last night with an inspiring sermon by Rev. M. L. Kesler, general manager of the Thomasville Orphanage.

The Odd Fellows' Orphan Home is one of the oldest in North Carolina, but never until this year has there been a high school conducted under its own roof, and never until last year was there even a school of any sort, except the weekly Sunday School on Sunday afternoons.

In connection with the closing of the high school this year, is to be held the sixth annual reunion of the Alumni Association of the I. O. O. F. Orphan Home. This is an organization formed in 1905 by the former children of the institution who have left the Home. It has been holding annual meetings each year with but two interruptions since that time, and all have been attended by large numbers of children who once shared the benefits of the institution. Already between 15 and 20 are here for the reunion this year, and many more are expected before the exercises are closed. The association has undertaken the equipment of a modern library and reading room at the Home, and has accumulated a large number of books and magazines.

The officers are as follows: President, Edward M. Davis, Goldsboro; vice president, Mrs. D. W. Davis, Goldsboro; secretary and treasurer, Henry A. Dennis, Greenville; historian, W. F. Evans, Greenville.

The first meeting of the Alumni Association will be held tomorrow.

The graduating exercises will be tomorrow night.

COUNCIL LET DOWN BARS

Repeal the Sunday Selling Ordinance. New Law is Promised in Its Place at the Next Meeting of the Body.

By unanimous vote and over the protest of a delegation of prominent citizens and ministers, the City Council yesterday morning repealed the ordinance prohibiting Sunday selling. Since the action of the body there is now no ordinance that would prevent any business house opening on Sunday. However, there is a State law which provides a penalty for one following his usual vocation on the Sabbath.

The repeal of the ordinance was accomplished on motion of Councilman Jones, in charge of the Department of Public Safety, seconded by Councilman Chadwick, passing without a dissenting vote. Ex-Judge E. K. Bryan, city attorney, gave it as his opinion that the ordinance, which was admitted to be discriminatory, would not stand the test of courts and he remarked also that it had never been enforced, although a law for many months. Judge Bryan will draft another ordinance—one that he will feel reasonably certain of standing the test of the courts—and have the same for the consideration of the Council at the meeting next week. It is the purpose of the Council to pass an ordinance in lieu of the one reptaled. Judge Bryan said that there was a constitutional question involved and that he desired time in which to look up the law carefully so that when he drew an ordinance he would have one that would "stick" in the courts.

Discussion of the Sunday selling ordinance was precipitated when Mr. Wm. Crownstream, who conducts a place in the northern part of the city, addressed the Council against the enforcement of this law, stating that the new chief of police, Mr. N. J. Williams, had given notice that the measure would be enforced to the letter. Enforcement of the ordinance would cut him out of the sale of ice cream, ice and cold drinks, he said, while certain other business houses, such as drug stores, restaurants, etc., may dispense soft drinks and yet not violate the law, because of certain exemptions. Mr. Crownstream declared this to be class legislation.

"If you are going to enforce this Sunday law," said Mr. Crownstream, "I ask that you make it apply to everything. Stop the street cars from running, close the drug stores, stop the preachers from preaching, stop—"

"Stop!" called Mayor Moore, "leave the churches out; this is a law-abiding community, the spirit of anarchy does not prevail. We won't stand for that sort of talk."

Mr. Crownstream apologized, stating that he did not mean any offense either to the Council or to the ministers.

At this juncture Councilman Jones offered his resolution repealing the ordinance, as follows:

"Be it ordained by the Council of the City of Wilmington that Section 471 of the Revised Ordinances of said city be and the same is hereby repealed."

The resolution was signed by the five members of the Council.

Judge Bryan asked Council for time in which to draw a new ordinance saying that when he submitted one he desired that it be an improvement over the one repealed because he did not think it would "stick" in court.

Rev. J. D. Bundy, pastor of Grace Methodist church, asked if there had been any complaint of the Sunday selling ordinance except from the dealers themselves. Councilman Jones admitted that there had not been. Mr. Bundy then asked that action on the resolution be postponed until the side represented by the ministers could be given a full hearing and stated also that the ordinance then in force could do no harm anyway if not enforced.

City Attorney Bryan in reply to a question of Dr. Milton stated that there was doubt about the State Legislature having the power to make the following of the usual vocation on Sunday a criminal offense instead of a civil act as at present; so much doubt, in fact, that the Legislature although it has discussed the matter, has never seen fit to take action; then, certainly the Council would not have this right, he said. Judge Bryan said that he was satisfied the present ordinance would not "stick" and that not a single prosecution had been brought under it. The Council, he said, could defer action on the resolution until a later meeting, it did not matter with him, but that the body would be leaving on the books an invalid ordinance. Judge Bryan said that there was no man in Wilmington who was more heartily in favor of observance of the Sabbath. He would like to see all the places closed, from a moral standpoint, but he was not engaged by the city to advise the Council as to the moral phases of matters under discussion, but to give legal opinion. He said that he would be glad to confer with any attorney that the ministers might designate in the drafting of the substitute ordinance to be submitted next week. He would rather prefer the assistance of an attorney selected by them, as he realized that it was a pretty tough proposition.

Rev. Dr. Wm. H. Milton, rector of St. James' Episcopal church, said that he rather agreed with the position taken by the Greek confectioners last year when the Sunday selling question was up, the Greeks contending that the proposed law was discriminatory in favor of the drug stores. "I understand," said Dr. Milton, "that certain clerks and druggists would like very much to see the Council close the drug stores on Sunday. The druggists could have a rule among themselves by which one or two drug stores could be open on Sunday for the sale of drugs only."

Councilman Merritt said that he had talked with a number of druggists and that they stated to him that if the sale of cigars and cold drinks on Sunday was cut out they would have to close on that day as the drug business was not sufficient to justify them to keep open.

Rev. Dr. J. H. Foster, pastor of the First Baptist church, called attention to the fact that in a number of other places arrangements have been made by which the druggists would alternate in staying open on Sundays and he could see no reason why the plan would not work here. This arrangement would give the proprietors and clerks a day of rest, he said. Dr. Foster said that the ministers cared something for the physical as well as the spiritual welfare of the people.

"I felt," said Dr. Foster, "when I was called to come down here it would be a reflection on this body, as the members were elected and sworn to do their duty in upholding the law. You should go forward instead of backwards. You should make the ordinance apply to all instead of doing away with it altogether. I have never heard of any law that did not have some flaw in it. Lawyers take different views as to the constitutionality of laws."

The resolution of Councilman Jones was then put to a vote and carried unanimously.

There is some likelihood of the Council getting together one day this week on an ordinance to take the place of the one repealed, but if adopted it would not go into effect for a week.

The Ordinance

Owing to the very widespread interest that will be manifested in the action of the Council with regard to the Sunday selling ordinance, the law that has just been repealed is given in its entirety as follows:

"471. Sunday Regulations—Open Shop, Etc.—Penalty—No person, firm or corporation shall publicly expose for sale, sell or offer for sale within the city, on Sunday, any goods, wares or merchandise. And no store, shop, warehouse or other place of business, in which goods, wares or merchandise are kept for sale, shall keep open doors from 12 o'clock Saturday night until 12 o'clock Sunday night: Provided, that this section shall not be construed to apply to hotels or boarding houses or to restaurants or cafes, furnishing meals and refreshments to actual guests, where the same are regularly licensed and are not otherwise prohibited by ordinance from opening on Sunday; nor shall this section apply to druggists in their business as such: Provided further, that regularly licensed news stands for the sale of newspapers and periodicals; licensed ice dealers, carrying in stock and dealing in ice alone; licensed dairies, furnishing milk and cream; and regularly licensed bakeries for the sale of bakery products, may remain open for the transaction of such business, as herein authorized, until 11 o'clock A. M. on Sunday, and such news stands, ice dealers and dairies may re-open after 3 o'clock P. M. on Sunday.

"Nothing in this section shall be construed to prohibit licensed livery stables or garages from hiring out vehicles; nor to prohibit the publication and sale of newspapers in and from newspaper establishments; nor the vending of newspapers upon the streets and public places of the city by newsboys; nor to prohibit bootblacks on the streets, nor to prohibit licensed bootblack stands.

"Any person, firm or corporation, dealer, agent or employe violating any provision of this section shall be subject to a fine of $10 for each and every such offense."

Mr. Peschau Drafted Law

County Solicitor Geo. L. Peschau, was assistant city attorney when the ordinance quoted above was adopted by the City Council. In fact, he drafted the ordinance at the request of and in order to meet the views of the former Council. In speaking of the ordinance last night, he said:

"The ordinance was drafted to meet certain conditions considered urgent by the former Council and embodied their wishes. The ordinance has never been tested, and in the absence of a construction by the Supreme Court I am not able to prophecy its fate. It was drawn on the assumption that it was constitutional, and after an investigation of authorities. It was submitted to, investigated and approved by the former city attorney, and favorable opinions as to its legality were given by certain members of the bar to whom it was submitted."

HE HAS HIMSELF INDICTED

New York Cider Manufacturer Anxious to Have North Carolina Law Tested—To Indict His Agent Today.

For the porpose of testing the prohibition law as it relates to the sale of cider, Mr. W. H. Hildick, president of the W. H. Hildick Co., of New York, manufacturer of a brand of cider known as "Honey Dew", arrived in the city yesterday, and immediately had a warrant issued by Mr. H. Mack Godwin, a private detective, before Justice Harriss charging him with the illegal sale of intoxicating liquors. This case was heard before Justice Harriss in the afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was dismissed on the ground that Mr. Hildick, himself, had not personally solicited orders for cider in Wilmington.

Three wholesale grocers were called as witnesses, each of whom testified that Mr. Hildick had never personally solicited from them the sale of cider of any kind. Mr. Hildick signified his willingness to make a solicitation of an order for cider, if the court would wait, but this was thought to be improper, and the action was dismissed.

John D. Bellamy & Son have been retained as attorneys by Mr. Hildick, who states that it is his intention to push the matter through the courts until the matter is settled, and in order to do so he stated yesterday afternoon that he would have one of his agents, who has recently solicited orders here, come to the city this morning when a warrant will be issued charging him with the illegal sale of intoxicants. The hour set for this hearing is 9 o'clock this morning before Justice Harriss.

A sample of the "Honey Dew" along with several others, was submitted to the city chemist last week, and found to contain a considerable amount of alcohol, the specimen in question containing 6.35 per cent. This amount of alcohol is in excess of the amount allowed by law and, therefore, it was classed by the officers of the law as an intoxicating drink, and dealers were forbidden to sell it. Yesterday morning there were three cases submitted in Recorder's court for selling cider, judgment being suspended in each with the payment of the costs with the understanding that the sale of cider should not continue.

The outcome of the case of Mr. Hildick, if he continues the fight, will be watched with the greatest interest. The announced purpose of Chief Williams, of the police force, is to put the ban on the sale of all drinks of this class. The contention of the "Honey Dew" manufacturers is that it is pure apple cider, and is not subject to Federal tax, that it is neither spirituous, vinous nor malt liquor, that its sale is permitted in every State of the Union, and that the law in this State is unconstitutional in that it discriminates in favor of the farmer giving him the right to sell cider from his own form but not allowing the manufacturer this privilege. The result of the test case will be awaited with interest.

Must Raze Entire Building

Mayor Moore yesterday granted a permit for razing the building at the southwest corner of Second and Market streets in accordance with the resolution adopted by the City Council about two weeks ago to the effect that the entire building must be torn down. It is said that the owners had hoped to remove the two top stories without disturbing the first. The permit under which the work of razing the building was started provides that it all must come down.

THE ODD FELLOWS' HOME

Mr. M. W. Jacobi Returns From Meeting of Board of Trustees of Which He is Chairman—Commencement.

Mr. M. W. Jacobi returned yesterday from Goldsboro where he went Monday to attend a meeting of the board of trustees of the Odd Fellows' Orphan Home, of which he is chairman, and also to attend the commencement exercises of the Orphans' Home school which began Sunday and closed Tuesday. On Sunday Rev. M. L. Kesler, superintendent of the Thomasville Orphanage, preached the annual sermon. The grammar grades had their exercises on Monday, the commencement closing with the graduating exercises which were held Tuesday evening in the auditorium of the Jacobi Memorial building.

The commencement address was made Tuesday night by Mr. John F. Bruton, of Wilson, at the close of which came the delivery of diplomas to the members of the graduating class by Mr. Jacobi. Grand Master M. L. Shipman, of Raleigh, was also present and made a short talk.

The meeting of the board of trustees was held Monday afternoon and many matters of far-reaching importance to the school were discussed. It was decided by the Grand Lodge in session in Greensboro about two weeks ago to have a field secretary to solicit funds for the school and to do general propaganda work for the Odd Fellows of the State. No one has yet been selected for this position but the matter will be decided within a few days by the trustees of the Home.

Last night in speaking of the meeting of the board Mr. Jacobi said:

"We decided to elect a farm superintendent, a graduate of an agricultural college, who will have charge of the farm work and who will teach the children modern methods of farming. It is the intention of the trustees to make it a place where the children are taught botany, chemistry, plant life, the proper rotation of crops, uses of fertilizers, correct methods of dairying, in other words to make the school farm a practical demonstration of what a model farm should be.

"It is the desire of the trustees to teach modern and practical methods of farming and dairying, so that when the children leave the institution they will have training that will be of value to them in after life.

"At present there are 192 children at the orphanage and four inmates of the Old Folks' Home. The two singing classes, one of which will tour the eastern part of the State and the other the western, will start out this week on their annual trip,and we hope that their success in raising funds will be equal to last year when the net returns were $5,500. On account of the great number at the institution and the many others who are making application for entrance it is necessary that our receipts be quite large this year, and as we depend upon these classes largely for our maintenance we hope that they will be gladly received throughout the State."

THE RECORDER'S COURT

Alleged Violators of Prohibition Law Submit—Tom Stokes Case

Yesterday several alleged violators of the prohibition law were before the Recorder, charged with selling cider. These were W. V. Dew, who runs a store on road near Delgado; C. S. Garrell, who has a place of business at intersection of Carolina Place and Delgado, and Z. G. Thompson, whose store is at intersection of Castle street road and the tracks of the Tidewater Power Co. All of these were charged with selling the brand of cider recently put under the ban by the police department. They submitted, and judgment was suspended in each case upon payment of the costs.

Tom Stokes, superintendent of the county convict camp, who waived examination in Justice Harriss' court was also before the Recorder. It appearing that he had a permit from the sheriff to carry a pistol, the case against him, charging him with carrying concealed weapons, was dismissed.

Vergil Simmons, colored, charged with embezzlement, tendered submission to forcible trespass which was accepted by the State, and judgment was suspended upon payment of the cost. Ephraim Brown, colored, was given 30 days on the roads for vagrancy.

WANTS TO CO-OPERATE

United States Commissioner Harriss Desires to Help Enforce Law

Referring to the charge of Judge Connor to the Federal grand jury at Raleigh, a brief synopsis of which appeared in yesterday's Star, United States George Harriss last night said:

"I fully agree with the position taken by Judge Connor as to the enforcement of Federal laws designed to aid the State in stamping out illegal traffic in liquor. The tendency of recent United States laws has been towards the assistance of the State in the enforcement of prohibition.

"As a rule I have never issued a United States warrant for the violation of the prohibition laws after the State has tried the case, because I believe that the fines should go to the school fund of the county, or if a prison sentence is given that the offender should go to the roads of the county. However, when it is impossible to reach offenders by State courts I have assisted in sending several to the Federal prison at Atlanta. So long as I am Commissioner I intend to follow this rule. Should it become at any time necessary for me to act in the capacity of United States Commissioner, I will do my full duty in seeing that the law is properly enforced."

It is to have 150 rooms, and is to have all modern conveniences. Work has alreay begun on its construction, as mentioned in The Star some days ago.

NO FUNDS FOR DEEP WELLS

Council Delays Proposition of Councilman Wood to Make Experiments for Water Supply—Threatens to Resign

Because of the lack of funds in the treasury, both immediate and in prospect, from which to make an appropriation for any amount for any purpose, the City Council yesterday morning by a rather unusual vote sat down on Councilman Wood's proposition for the city to appropriate $5,000 for immediate use in sinking deep wells from which it is hoped eventually to get the public water supply.

The resolution was adopted with an amendment by Councilman Loughlin that "the appropriation be made out of such funds as not otherwise appropriated," which is only another way of saying that the appropriation was not made. Councilman Jones signed the resolution as offered by Councilman Wood and seconded by Councilman Merritt, but he overlooked the matter of casting his vote when the question was "put" by the Mayor. Taking "the bull by the horns," probably more for the purpose of bringing to an issue his right to have a voice under such circumstances than for anything else, although he had cautioned the board that an appropriation could not be made with no funds to cover it, Mayor Moore declared a tie to exist on account of the failure of Councilman Jones to vote and proceeded to break the tie by voting with Councilman Loughlin for the amendment.

There is a question of whether the Mayor has a right to vote when all five members of the Council are present, but there seems to be no doubt that he could have declared Councilman Jones in the affirmative on the amendment when he did not vote either way. The result would have been the same.

Councilman Wood served notice on the Council that if he continued to be balked in his plans to fulfill his pre-election promises he would resign from the body because he did not feel like giving his time and thought to the various municipal questions and have all his plans overridden by his colleagues.

Mayor Moore told Councilman Wood that he had two years in which to work and that he should not try to do everything at once. Councilman Wood said in reply that he was not trying to rush matters, but that he wanted to make a start on something. As for two years in which to work, he feared that the treasury would not be in any better condition at the end of that time than it is now. He said that he did not want the $5,000 right now, but merely wanted authority to expend that much if needed. Two or three months would be required for the preliminaries, he said, and then the money would not be spent all at one time. He expressed confidence at being able to secure water from deep wells in sufficient quantity to supply the city.

The discussion as to the appropriation for deep wells came up following a request from the County Board of Health for some improvements in the apparatus at the pumping station, presented by Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, the superintendent. It was requested that the depth of sand in the filters be increased to 30 inches. The sand will be provided. Request was also made for an apparatus for the securing of chlorine gas, which, if installed, will supercede the present hyperchloride of lime process now in use.

No action was taken by the Council, as the body plunged immediately into a discussion of the proposition of Councilman Wood. When opposition to the resolution began to manifest itself Councilman Wood said that he was going to have the deep wells if he had to resort to the referendum to secure them.

The resolution as offered by Councilman Wood was as follows:

"Be it resolved by City Council of the City of Wilmington, that the sum of $5,000 be hereby appropriated for immediate use for the purpose of sinking deep wells in the City of Wilmington, for the purpose of experimenting in attempting to establish and maintaining a better and more adequate water supply. Said money to be expended by the Water and Sewerage Department, and the city clerk and treasurer is hereby instructed to pay from time to time, and in such amounts up to said sum of $5,000 upon vouchers from the Water and Sewerage Department, signed and countersigned, as is now in practice in paying bills from said Water and Sewerage Department."

The amendment of Councilman Loughlin changes the reading of the resolution so that it is provided that the appropriation be made out "of any funds not otherwise appropriated."

Upon the recommendation of Councilman Jones the following were elected members of the police force: Messrs. W. H. Rivenbark, H. G. Bullard and J. F. Jordan.

Councilman Loughlin inquired if the County Board of Health had taken over the sanitary equipment yet. Mayor Moore said that it was being used by the consolidated health department, but as yet no inventory of property had been made with a view of collecting from the county one-fifth of the inventoried price. This will be done in a short time.

The pay roll from the Water and Sewerage Department last week showed an increase in the wages of laborers from $1.35 a day to $1.50 a day and as the Council had not authorized an increase the Mayor would not sign the pay roll carrying the raise. When the matter was brought up yesterday morning Councilman Wood, in charge of the Department of Water and Sewerage, stated that he understood that it had been customary for the wages of laborers to be increased after they had been in the employ of the city for some time without action of the Council. However, he was perfectly willing for the Council to pass on the question and he would abide by the decision. No member of the board objected to the increase, the only point being raised was whether the budget as arranged would take care of the increase, or a new appropriation would have to be made. Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the city clerk and treasurer, being out of the city for a few days, it was decided to await his return to ascertain whether or not the budget covers the increase.

Councilman Wood said something about introducing a resolution allowing the merchants to use two feet of sidewalk in front of their stores for the display of their goods, but at the suggestion of another member he decided to hold off until next meeting. Councilman Wood said after the meeting that he felt pretty confident that a resolution giving the merchants this privilege would be adopted.

A resolution was adopted formally approving the loan of $200,000 from the Old Dominion Trust Company, Richmond, Va.

A resolution was passed dedicating to and setting apart for the use of the County Board of Health the property on which the incinerator is being constructed in the northern part of the city, to be held by the said board so long as it is used for an incinerator, then to revert to the city. There is a clause in the resolution that relieves the county from payment of one-fifth of the assessed value of the site, as had been agreed at a joint meeting of the Council and County Commissioners. The lot was assessed at $1,000, one-fifth of which was to be paid by the county. The city already owned the property.

Mr. J. J. Hopkins, of the firm of Hopkins, Davis & Hintze, appeared before the board to request that a resolution or ordinance be passed prohobiting a private market within 396 feet of any market owned by the city. The firm of Hopkins, Davis & Hintze have most of the space at the Front street market house. Across the street from them is a vacant store room that was used by the Citizens' Co-operative Market Company for a while. Mr. Hopkins said that he did not raise any objection at that time because there was so much agitation of the market question. He said that prior to the five-year lease secured by his firm on the space at Front street market the city always stipulated that no private market should be opened within 396 feet of public markets. He merely asked for a re-instatement of this ordinance. So far as he knew no one contemplated opening a market near Front street market. He mad the point, however, that the market houses owned by the city should be protected from private markets.

Councilman Loughlin asked Mr. Davis if he paid any more for his space in the Front street market than he would have to pay for the same amount of space as well located outside the market. He replied that he did not know as to this. In reply to a question of Councilman Wood he said that his firm paid to the city about $111 a month rent. Members of Council appeared to be surprised that no more rental was received by the city.

Mr. J. M. Batson, who owns the Palace Market, at southwest corner Secod and Market streets, which building it was thought might be torn down in its entirety, was present at the meeting. Members of Council thought probably he wanted to rent the vacant store room in front of the Front street market house, but Mr. Batson said he was not present for that purpose and remarked that if he had to move from Second and Market he guessed he could find a place somewhere else. The resolution was then adopted.

Licenses were granted as follows: Sam Merrick, meat market, 1020 Princess street; J. H. Mack, restaurant, 1001 Castle street; Jas. Rackley, soft drinks, 106 Dawson street; Shepard & Milton, soft drinks, 920 Castle street. License was refused Wm. Nixon to conduct a soft drink place at 813 Nixon street.

The clerk read the following letter that had been received from the Cum-

DELIGHTFUL MUSICAL WAS GIVEN TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

One of the most enjoyable social events of the week was the music recital given Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James F. Post, No. 112 North Seventh street, by their accomplished daughter, Miss Lydia Post, soprano, who was assisted by her sister, Miss Julia Post, as pianist. It was attended by more than 50 music lovers, who considered themselves most fortunate in having this opportunity of hearing such charming music.

Miss Lydia Post recently returned from Baltimore, Md., where during the past four years she has been a student of voice culture under some of the famous masters at the Peabody Conservatory of Music. In addition to her four years in music at Peabody she was also during the past year under the special training of Prof. George Castelle, of Baltimore, a teacher and musician of National reputation. Tuesday afternoon was the first time many of her friends in the city had heard Miss Post sing, and they were surprised to hear a soprano of such thrilling sweetness, wonderful flexibility and wide range. She had perfect control of her voice, ranging from the most difficult selections to those of the lighter vein with the greatest ease.

Miss Julia Post acted as accompanist and also sang several selections which were much enjoyed. She played with rare skill and with sympathetic intuition rendered the accompaniments that were as charming as the solos by her sister. Following is the programme rendered:

Part One.

1. Charmant Papillon, Campra; Te souvient-il, Gretry; Tarentelle, Dubois.
2. Liebesliied, S. Langgard; Waltz, Op. 36, No. 3, Balker-Grondahl.
3. Ballatella, Pagliardi, Leoniavallo.

Part Two.

1. Liebesbotschaft, Silhubert: This and That, Franz; Boat Song, Fay Song, H. Ware.
2. Prelude, Rachmanioff; March Grotesque, Sinding.
3. The Years at the Spring, Beach; From the Land of the Sky-Blue Water, W. Cadman; Birthday, H. Woodman.

Wrightsville Beach

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver T. Walace have returned to Wilmington after spending a week at the Oceanic Hotel.

Mrs. J. F. Conner and Miss Rubina Barrett, of Atlanta, Ga., are spending a few weeks at the Seashore Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Brown Shepard and Miss Laura Vass, of Raleigh, will arrive this week to spend a few days at the Seashore Hotel.

Judge and Mrs. T. R. Gaynor, of Des Moines, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. V. R. Evans, of Peters, Tenn., are occupying the cottage next north of the Oceanic Hotel.

Among those who are expected at the Seashore Hotel this week are Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Carlyle, of Lumberton; Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Finlayson, of Charlotte; Mr. L. Dew and family, of Wadesboro; Mrs. W. E. Holt, Jr., of Lexington; Miss Lida Caldwell, of Charlotte; Mr. Duncan McKenzie and family, of Timmonsville, S. C.

The Seashore and Oceanic Hotels have received requests from the Cedartown, Ga., firemen asking for rates. For the last few Summers, this organization numbering about 60 men, has spent their vacation at the beach, and will probably do so again this year.

Yesterday's Charlotte Observer: "Misses Julia Caldwell and Sarah Wilson, accompanied by Miss Caldwell's sister, Mrs. W. E. Holt, Jr., will leave Saturday for Wrightsville Beach. They will be guests at the Seashore Hotel. Miss Mary Durham will join them a week later."

The Seashore Hotel has received a request for reservations from Mr. C. Brewster Chapman, of New York, for himself and chauffeur. Mr. Chapman, who is president of the Arlington Co., of New York City, will motor to Wilmington from Asheville via Columbia, S. C., the latter part of this week.

Capt. Edgar L. Hinton, manager of the Seashore Hotel, received an inquiry recently asking if the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of South Carolina could secure accommodation here July 3rd to 6th. As this is in the midst of the Summer season Mr. Hinton was forced to send them a negative answer.

Among the guests who are at the Seashore Hotel this week are Mrs. Thomas J. Jackson, widow of the lamented "Stonewall" Jackson, and her daughter, Mrs. E. R. Preston, of Charlotte. They will remain for several days, and in the meantime the many friends of Mrs. Jackson in this city will be glad to call on this beloved woman.

ANNUAL MEETING HELD.

Wilmington Association of Credit Men Elect Officers for Year.

The annual election of officers of the Wilmington Association of Credit Men took place yesterday afternoon in the dining room of the Orton Hotel after a delightful dinner, over which Mr. M. W. Jacobs, a former president of the organization, presided in graceful manner. The new officers are as follows: President, Mr. L. E. Hall, of Hall & Pearsall; vice president, Mr. H. L. Hunt, of McNair & Pearsall; secretary, Mr. Stuart R. Keyes, re-elected. The old board of directors was re-elected as follows: Messrs. Eduard Ahrens, C. N. Evans, J. A. Taylor, Louis Einstein and E. A. Metts.

While the members smoked their cigars the customary reports were made by the various officers and members which showed that the association has made a substantial increase in point of financial strength during the year, and that the work of the association has prospered. The matter of selecting delegates to attend the 18th annual convention of the National Association of Credit Men, which convenes in Cincinnati, Ohio, June 17th, was taken up, and it was decided to have the president and secretary make the appointments later. Several members of the local association have signified their intention of attending the meeting of the convention.

The meeting then adjourned after a very pleasant hour and a half spent in discussing the special problems that confront the credit men. A meeting of the officers and board of directors will be held this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the offices of the association on Front street.

NO FUNDS FOR DEEP WELLS

berland County Agricultural Society:

"Fayetteville, N. C., June 9, 1913.

"To the Hon. Mayor, Wilmington, North Carolina.

"Dear Sir: We hear that your board is holding a police account against the Cumberland County Agricultural Society. We cannot understand why as we paid Mr. George, Mr. Hall and Mr. Bullard $56.10, all they claimed we owed them. We have checks to show the same. We would thank you to correct same through your papers as we understand it has gone out through your city papers that we didn't pay for the services of your police.

Very truly,
"D. K. TAYLOR,
"Vice President."

Chief of Police Williams stated to the Council that he had talked with the officers and they stated that the fair association paid their expenses while in Fayetteville and that the city of Wilmington paid their regular salary while away and so far as they were concerned there was no further claim. Chief Williams suggested that maybe the city of Wilmington was trying to get back from the fair association the salary of the three officers for the several days that they were out of the city. At the last meeting of the board a resolution was adopted striking out the bill, so further action was deferred until the return of Capt. Meares, who may be able to give some light on why the bill was ever made out against the fair association.

Mayor Moore presided at the meeting with all members in attendance. A record of the proceedings was kept by Col. Chas. H. White, tax collector.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Deeds were filed for record yesterday as follows: The Southern Realty & Development Co., to Sallie Luther Finch, for $100 and other considerations, lots 355 and 356 Lakeside Park; Hannah Shrier to Mary A. Moore, for $1,000 and other considerations, lot on east side of Seventh street, 33 feet north of Queen, 33x99 feet in size.

—James McDuffie, colored, who runs a store at No. 105 Dawson street, was arrested late yesterday afternoon for having in his possession too much whiskey. The law only allows one gallon and there were two gallons discovered on his premises. There were also, it is said, a dozen or more jugs lying around the place. He will have a hearing before the Recorder this morning.

COL. GRAY'S INJURIES.

Serious But Patient Doing Well as Could be Expected in Hospital.

Mr. John Carr Springer, of this city, yesterday received a letter from his daughter, Mrs. A. J. Gray, of Richmond, stating that Col. Gray, whose injuries in a railroad accident have been noted, was doing as well as could be expected in a hospital at Little Rock, Ark., but that his escape in the railway accident was marvelous. Mrs. Gray is with him but it will perhaps be two weeks before he will be able to return to Richmond. He has a collar bone broken and other bruises and cuts that are quite painful.

A clipping from a Little Rock newspaper, enclosed by Mrs. Gray, gives particulars of the wreck in which Col. Gray was injured with eight others, four whites and five negroes all told. The injury resulted when a dining car attached to the westbound California Limited, of the Rock Island, was derailed by a "sun kink". The train consisted of eight cars and an engine and was running 30 miles an hour when about a mile from De-Vall's Bluff, the dining car jumped from the rails and completely turned over, landing in an upright position at the side of the track. The car continued across a bridge, traversing a distance of four telegraph poles on the ties before it was torn loose from the rest of the train. The train was stopped quickly and the injured sent to Little Rock on the Pullman coach. A lady seated at the same table as Col. Gray when the wreck occurred, was so badly hurt that it was not expected that she would live through the night when Mrs. Gray wrote on Sunday.

Home Treatment for Sallow, Wrinkled Skin

A. C. F. asks: "What should I do for my sallow complexion, and how can I get rid of my wrinkles?"

Sallowness is best removed by removing the skin itself. This is effectually accomplished by the use of ordinary mercolized wax, which causes the offensive outer skin gradually to peel off, in fine particles scarcely noticeable to the naked eye. Within a week or so you will have an enviable complexion, the new skin exhibiting a healthful, youthful tint incomparable with artificial coloring. Get an ounce of this wax at your druggstore, apply at night like cold cream, only don't rub it in. Wash it off in the morning with warm water.

For your wrinkles, try a solution of powdered saxolite, one ounce, dissolved in a half pint witch hazel. Bathe your face in this every morning for awhile. The result will surprise you.—Beauty's Mirror.

Pimples Should Be Watched

May be Means of Absorbing Disease Germs in Most Unexpected Manner.

Make Your Blood Pure and Immune With S. S. S.

The world renowned laboratory of the Swift Specific Company has collected a vast amount of information regarding the spread of blood diseases. In thousands of instances the most virulent types have been the result of coming in contact with disease germs in public places, and the apparently insignificant pimple has been the cause. It spreads with astonishing rapidity, often infecting the entire system in a few days.

It is fortunate, however, that there is a remedy to cope quickly and thoroughly with such a condition, and thanks to the energy of its producers the famous S. S. S. may now be had at almost any drug store in the civilized world.

This preparation stands alone as a blood purifier. It is somewhat revolutionary in its composition, since it accomplishes all that was ever claimed for mercury, iodides, arsenic, and other destructive mineral drugs, and yet it is absolutely a purely vegetable product. It contains one ingredient which serves the active purpose of stimulating each tiny cellular part of the tissues to the healthy and judicious selection of its own essential nutriment. There are more cases of arcticular rheumatism, locomotor ataxia, paresis, neuritis, and similar diseases resultant from the use of minerals than most people are aware of. These facts are brought out in a highly interesting book compiled by the medical department of The Swift Specific Co., 137 Swift Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. It is mailed free, together with a special letter of advice, to all who are struggling with a blood disease.

Get a bottle of S. S. S. to-day of your druggist. It will surprise you with its wonderful action in the blood

COTTON MARKET LESS ACTIVE WHEAT TAKES DECIDED TURN THE STOCK MARKET BRIGHTER

Close Was Steady, But at a Net Decline of From Seven to Thirteen Points—Opening Was Steady.

New York, June 11.—The cotton market was less active today and prices eased off under realizing by recent buyers and scattered selling encouraged by reports of clearing and warmer weather in the South. The close was steady, but at a net decline of from 7 to 13 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 1 to 6 points in response to lower Liverpool cables. Offerings were not very heavy and reports of low night temperatures in the eastern belt rallied new crop months to about the closing figures of last night, during the early trading. Liverpool was a moderate buyer of July, August and October here, but there were rumors that above 12 cents for July yesterday some cotton was sold against prospective shipments from the South and the relatively easy ruling of the near months, combined with indications for more seasonable weather in the belt, seemed to discourage any important support. The market, consequently, soon turned easier and prices eased off in the afternoon on Memphis and New Orleans selling, rumors that the South was selling hedges against the prospective early new crop movement in New Orleans, and reports that one or two of the local spot houses were selling July again today against possible shipments from points in the Atlantic belt. Closing prices were practically the lowest of the day. Private wires from Memphis reported rising temperatures there this afternoon and it was said that one lot of new crop cotton for July shipment from Galveston was offered in the New Orleans market. Rumors of a bearish report by a prominent traveling crop expert on the crop outlook between New Orleans and Memphis were a factor on the decline, and some of the selling on the late break may have been encouraged by the renewed weakness of the stock market. Rumors of a private settlement in July were not confirmed.

Spot cotton, 10 points off. Middling uplands, 12.25; do. gulf, 12.50. Sales, none.

Cotton futures closed steady.

The Brilliant Stars of June

By the end of June, Mars, Venus, Saturn and Jupiter will all be morning stars, but Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is at all times the "Star" medicine for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough. A cold in June is as apt to develop into bronchitis or pneumonia as at any other time, but not if Foley's Honey and Tar Compound is taken. It will surely head off the cold, and heal the inflammed membranes. The genuine in a yellow package.—Robt. R. Bellamy.

Excitement Absent in Yesterday's Trading—Progress Toward Recovery Made in Early Trading—Severe Break.

New York, June 11.—The excitement which attended yesterday's violent break in stocks was absent from today's trading, which was comparatively calm, and on a much smaller scale. Some progress was made toward a recovery in the early session but the effect of this movement was nullified by a severe break shortly before the close. Canadian Pacific was the particular point of weakness, falling nearly eight points from its high price of the day to the lowest figure since 1911. Steel sold below 50 for the first time since 1909.

Union Pacific dropped to 137¾, and a number of other low records were made, with virtually the entire active list selling below yesterday's close.

Bear selling was perhaps the principal factor in the break, which was a disappointment to traders. London trading here was smaller, being estimated at about 10,000 shares, divided between purchases and sales. Less importance was attached to the Minnesota rate case decision, as a market factor, and there was some disposition to emphasize the points in the decision, overlooked at first, which favor the railroads. These considerations as well as the technical condition of the market, were effective in supporting the list for a time, but it was soon evident that there was no sustained demand for stocks.

Conditions in the money market came in for considerable discussion. Rates for time loans were stronger, and it was said that even these higher rates were nominal, practically no time money being offered. Short term note issues amounting to nearly $30,000,000, were announced and it was argued that they would impose an additional strain upon the money market. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $2,400,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales of stocks were 574,400 shares.

The Master Of Strange Powers

Reads the Innermost Secrets of Life Like the Pages of an Open Book.

The great phychologist, Mme. Elda Melean, who is visiting in Wilmington for the first time, is certainly doing all the good that the press and public claim for this noted life reader. This is proven by the large number of our better people who call daily.

Would you achieve success? Would you know and experience the pleasures that come from leading instead of being led? would you win merit in eyes of those with whom you come in contact and create a favorable impression wherever you go? In short, are you tired of your present aimless hit-or-miss existence and lack of ability to create favorable impressions? Surely you are. Then it is a duty that you owe to yourself to call on Elda Melean at once.

Many sad hearts have been gladdened, many weary lives made bright through the advice and magnetism of this Yogi philosopher, who simply amazes men and women in all walks of life who are in trouble or suspense concerning the every day affairs of life. One visit to this eminent clairvoyant may mean the turning point of your life.

Without asking a single question or you speaking one word Mme. Elda Melean will call your name in full, also full names of husband, wife, or sweetheart, tells you whom and when you will marry; never fails to reunite the separated; settles lovers' quarrels, family troubles and tells how to obtain absolute success in business, law suits, divorce, marriage, love affairs, investments, speculations, mining, real estate and all matters of interest.

Many are taking advantage of the special low price of the readings this week. Why not you?

YOUNG LADY ELECTED

Made Secretary of Whiteville Lumber Co.—Kinston News Notes

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Kinston, N. C., June 11.—Miss Bessie N. Claytor, a well known young woman, formerly of this city, has been elected secretary of the Whiteville Lumber Company, a big corporation of Goldsboro. The election of Miss Claytor to a position in a concern as influential as the Whiteville company establishes a precedent in this State. Her business ability is remarkable, and she has served as secretary to the president of the company, Mr. O'Berry, before being promoted to her new position by the directors. Miss Claytor is prominently connected here.

One of the oldest women in Onslow county, Mrs. Caroline Henderson, died at the home of her son, M. V. D. Everett, at Folkstone, in her 86th year. She was noted for her charitable disposition. For 31 years she had been handicapped by total blindness. She is survived by three sons, J. A., L. W. and M. V. D. Everett, all of Folkstone.

Recently burglars have been causing the town authorities of LaGrange, near here, much annoyance. Half a dozen small places of business were broken into and some merchandise and small sums in money taken. An attempt to enter the home of J. S. Wooten, a prominent man of LaGrange who is now in a Baltimore hospital for treatment, was frustrated when two young women, Misses Taylor, who were sleeping in the dwelling, telephoned for aid. The housebreakers fled when they had warning of the coming of men.

"Squire De Graffenreid" was the aristocratic name of a negro who, arrested upon a six months' old charge, was tried in municipal court and convicted. De Graffenreid, Cyclops-like, is a giant, has but one eye and a bad character. When a policeman attempted to take him to jail he strenuously objected and earned another indictment for resisting an officer. The original count against him was for disorderly conduct on a Norfolk Southern passenger train last Winter. He leaped from a car on the edge of this city and escaped so that the conductor could not deliver him up to the police. The conductor today appeared in court against him, and De Graffenreid, who has been in State's prison several times, was convicted.

HERBERT LUTTERLOH'S WILL.

Fayetteville, N. C., June 8.—The will of Herbert Lutterloh, who died May 24th, having an estate which is estimated at figures running from $125,000 to $175,000, has been filed for probate. The instrument, which is executed in Mr. Lutterloh's own hand, leaves the bulk of his property to his three young sons, Herbert, Ralph and Joseph Lutterloh, with the provision that should the three sons die before reaching the age of 21, their inheritance shall go to Mrs. Annie Lutterloh Bynum, of Pittsboro, who is a cousin of the testator. It is expressed briefly and simply, and is said to be so constructed that it could not be contested.

A number of special bequests are made, the most interesting of which is one of $5,000 in cash to Mr. Lutterloh's nephew, Edward Lutterloh Utley, if living. Utley has been a fugitive from justice since he escaped from the State prison at Raleigh three years ago, and his whereabouts are not known. The amount of this bequest is to revert to the estate if Utley is dead.

Five hundred dollars is bequeathed to St. John's Episcopal church in the body of the will, while a codicil devises that in addition, $100 annually shall be given to St. John's church, until the eldest of the three sons shall be 21. A bequest of $2,000 is made to Mrs. Bynum. Two hundred dollars is left to Mrs. W. A. Tillinghast, who for several years has been caring for the youngest of the children. To Thomas F. Smith, friend and cousin of the deceased, $500 is bequeathed. The same amount is given to Miss Ada Barrington, who nursed Mr. Lutterloh when he was in a hospital. Two hundred dollars goes to Archie McKay, his servant.

DELAYING CURRENCY REFORM.

Opposition to Considering the Measure in Special Session.

Washington, June 11.—At a meeting of the Senate Banking and Currency committee today, Democrats and Republicans expressed opposition to an effort to put through currency legislation at the special session and were confident that introduction of a bill in the Senate would lead to long debate, seriously retard the progress of the tariff bill, and keep Congress here until November.

Chairman Owen was of the opinion that a bill should be put through this Summer. He probably will bring in a measure within a few weeks, but members of the committee declared today it would not represent views of the committee, and that it might not be reported at this session.

Chairman Owen called today's meeting to explain features of the Glass bill, which probably will be introduced in the House shortly. Some Senators feel that the discussion in the House will pave the way for action in the Senate next Winter.

A House Banking and Currency sub-committee wrestled again today with the question of having all questions of the committee open to the public. The committee was divided and recessed to investigate authorities on their positions.

AMATEUR BREAKS RECORD.

A Tar Heel Holds Record for Mile Run.

Greensboro, N. C., June 11.—The Daily News correspondent at Hickory says:

"Richard Little, amateur, native of this place and Lenoir College graduate, today broke the amateur and professional records for mile run on his privately constructed track. His time was four minutes, 12 1-5 seconds. Taber, of Brown, who recently ran with John Paul Jones, stayed with Little until the last quarter. Seven Harvard men witnessed the meet. Dr. Mandott, Harvard, examined Little before the race, and said the runner was at the height of perfection physically. After the race neighbor farmers placed Little on their shoulders and carried him two miles home."

NO BOXING IN SUMMER

Exhibition Will be Suspended in New York During Hot Season

New York, June 11.—A suggestion to stop all boxing exhibitions in New York State during the months of June, July and August was favorably received today by the New York State Athletic Commission. The proposed rule, it was said, will be adopted to take effect next year.

Members of the committee pointed out that boxing was the only standard sport that was followed the year round. They believed the sport would benefit by having its special season, like baseball, football and hockey.

DOINGS AT BURGAW.

Enjoyable Social Event Largely Attended—Marriage Today.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Burgaw, N. C., June 11.—Messrs. A. B. Croom, Jr., and R. W. Black left yesterday morning for Raleigh to attend the State Christian Endeavor Union as delegates from Burgaw. While in Raleigh Mr. Croom will attend a meeting of the executive committee of the State Hospital, of which he is a member.

Miss Eliza Stephens, of Goldsboro, is visiting at the home of Mr. R. I. Durham, being here for the wedding of Miss Annie Dell Durham, which takes place Thursday. Miss Mary Barnwell, of Thomasville, N. C., is also here for the wedding of Miss Durham.

Miss Lydia Burton, of Monroe, N. C., is at the home of Mr. J. T. Bland, the guest of Mrs. J. E. Crutchfield.

Miss Leta Whitehead, of Scotland Neck, is visiting her sister, Mrs. R. H. Bradford.

An election on the question of bonds or taxes for Rocky Point township has been ordered for the 21st. If sentiment in Burgaw is to be taken as an indication of how the people feel on the question, it seems pretty safe to say that it will be voted down.

Mrs. Jane Murray, wife of Mr. J. W. C. Murray, of the Murraytown section, and mother of Mr. R. F. Murray, of Burgaw, died Sunday morning at 10 o'clock following an attack of paralysis Saturday night. The funeral was held Monday at 11 o'clock from Hopewell church, Rev. P. L. Clark conducting the services.

Monday Mrs. J. E. Crutchfield, at the home of her father, J. T. Bland, Esq., was hostess to a number of friends in compliment to Miss Lydia Burton, her guest, and the June brides-to-be, from 5 to 6:30 P. M. Receiving were Mrs. Crutchfield, Miss Burton, Miss Paddison, and Miss Lula Peele, while Miss Lorena Bland served the guests with hot chocolate and wafers. The guests were then ushered into the parlor where a guessing contest took place, under leadership of Mrs. H. B. Thomas and Mrs. W. O. Singletary, Mrs. Thomas' side winning the prize, which she gracefully presented to the guest of honor, Miss Benton. A salad course was served, followed by salted peanuts and mints. The guests pleasantly enjoyed the event.

NEW OFFICE FOR ELLSWORTH

Second Honor Comes to Carolinian in Capital City

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Washington, D. C., June 11.—For the second time in a few weeks an honor has come to Goodwin D. Ellsworth, a Tar Heel who, though long a resident of Washington, is a good Tar Heel still.

President Wilson recently appointed him to have charge of the administration of fourth-class postoffice affairs, at a salary of $4,500 and much political power; and now has named him as the representative of the Postoffice Department on the United States Geographic Board. No salary is attached but the position is important. Mr. Ellsworth is a Duplin county man, who has been assistant chief in the Division of Law and Records in the Treasury Department for 18 years.

In his new office he will be authority on spelling the names of postoffices, and as such will have a chance to settle the matter of spelling Newbern's name, which is spelled "New Bern" by the people of the town, "Newbern" by others, and in the opinion of some, should be spelled "New Berne," since it was named after Berne, Switzerland.

MISSIONARY MEETING TODAY.

Fayetteville Union Guest of Maxton Presbyterian Church.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Maxton, N. C., June 11.—The Woman's Missionary Union of Fayetteville Presbytery meets today and tomorrow with the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church here. Over a hundred delegates will attend. A full programme has been arranged. A public dinner will be served on the grounds each day.

The wet cold weather of the past week has been doing a great deal of damage to the crops, especially cotton. Grass is getting thick in the fields and unless fair weather gives the farmers an opportunity to get to work right away, the situation for Robeson county and a big cotton crop is not at all favorable.

Dr. M. R. Gibson, specialist for the treatment of diseases of the eye, ear, nose and throat, left Sunday night for New York where he goes to take special work in the hospitals there. He will be gone for two months. Mrs. Gibson and little daughter, Frances, accompanied him as far as Charlotte, where they went on a shopping trip.

ASHEVILLE SCHOOL WINS.

Takes Annual Boat Race From Washington & Lee.

Asheville, N. C., June 11.—On a clear lake this afternoon the crew of the Asheville school won from that of the Washington and Lee University by five lengths, in the annual boat race. The local oarsmen showed better form and had but little trouble in winning. The race was witnessed by a mammoth crowd, marking the last of the commencement exercises of the Asheville school.

WOMAN'S MISSIONS AT MAXTON.

Fayetteville Presbyterial Society is Holding Annual Meeting.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Maxton, N. C., June 11.—The 25th annual meeting of the Fayetteville Presbyterial Women's Missionary Society was held in the Maxton Presbyterian church last night.

The ladies were welcomed to the church and town by Rev. H. G. Hill, D. D., pastor of the church. In addition to the cordial words of welcome Dr. Hill's address was enriched by many beautiful and appropriate poetical quotations drawn from the never failing store of his memory, and by an original poem.

Dr. Hill was followed by Rev. H. F. Williams, D. D., of Nashville, Tenn., educational secretary of the executive committee of foreign mission work of the church, and editor of the Missionary Survey. Dr. Williams' address was descriptive of mission work in China, each mission having been visited in person by him, and was illustrated by many most beautiful stereopticon views.

The meeting was organized this morning by the enrollment of about 100 delegates, the reading of minutes and reports. The popular meeting at 11 A. M. was addressed by Rev. H. F. Ellinwood, of Hamlet, the subject being "Let Her Alone."

At 2:30 P. M. Mrs. L. W. Curtis presented Sunday School extension and Young People's Work, and Christian education and ministerial relief, as the Presbyterials are now to have a definite share in all these branches of work.

Dr. C. G. Vardell, of the Southern Presbyterian College and Conservatory of Music, also addressed the ladies. Dr. Vardell is chairman of Synod's committee on Women's Societies. Mrs. C. W. Rankin, of Fayetteville, presented the work in the new and additional phases into which it has developed.

The address at 8:05 P. M. was by Rev. C. N. Caldwell, a missionary from China, and was of surpassing interest.

PHARMACISTS AT NEWBERN

Thirty-fourth Annual Convention Convened Yesterday

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., June 11.—The 34th annual meeting of the North Carolina Pharmaceutical Association convened in Newbern this morning with about 75 members present.

Owing to the inclement weather, many of the druggists among who were President J. G. M. Cordon, of Clayton, were not able to be on hand for the first day's proceedings. After prayer by Rev. B. F. Huske, of this city, E. H. Meadows, who was one of the organizers of the association, delivered the address of welcome on behalf of the city. This address was thoroughly enjoyed by all present. Response to this was made by Vice President C. P. Harper, of Selma, he speaking on behalf of the visiting physicians. Dr. R. D. V. Jones, of this city, made the address of welcome on behalf of the local physicians and this was responded to by F. W. Hancock, of Oxford, N. C.

Very little business was transacted during the day.

A number of communications from other fraternal organizations extending best wishes to the association were read. Twenty-one new members were admitted to the association, some by letter, and others who were present at the meeting. The annual report of the secretary and the report of the treasurer were held over until tomorrow.

Tonight, the visiting druggists were tendered a reception at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bradham. This was one of the events of the social season and was largely attended. Mrs. S. W. Summers, of Greensboro, is the official reporter of the convention, and her work today received commendation from the members.

NECK BROKEN BY FALL.

Asheville Woman Thrown From Horse and Killed.

Asheville, N. C., June 11.—While horseback riding with friends she was visiting at Waynesville, N. C., this afternoon, Miss Lillian Ledford, of Asheville, was thrown from her horse and suffered a broken neck, dying instantly. Miss Ledford's horse became frightened at an obstacle in the road and she lost control of the animal. The accident occurred near Waynesville, at the grounds of the Methodist Assembly.

Miss Ledford was 20 years of age, and was a member of a prominent family of this city. She had resided here several years.

CARNIVAL OF SPORTS.

Big Delegates to Y. W. C. A. Conference at Black Mountain.

Asheville, N. C., June 11.—The 600 young women attending the Y. W. C. A. conference at Black Mountain indulged in a regular carnival of sports and tableaux today. Delegates from every school represented at the conference, attired in fanciful costumes, held a great parade and later posed for a panoramic photograph. Beautiful scenic tableaux were arranged and the crowing event of the afternoon was a representation of the New Orleans Mardi Gras, with a carnival on the campus. The conference ends next Monday.
